Morgan,

I got your news letter the other day. >1935

You refer to the LU Family, Elihu Oiler of Virginia. At least two of his children moved to the Wellston area of Jackson county, Ohio, about the time of the Civil War or shortly thereafter, Miles and John. They had families. I have quite a bit of information on them that I shall be mailing to you in a few days. John became a coal miner and minister. He had no chidlren of his own but adopted a boy who moved to the Portsmouth area and has descendants living there today. Interesting enough, there was another John >>6>4? Oiler from Virginia who was a minister at the same time; he was a black man who usually spelled his name Ailer although some of his records use Oiler and who had a large family in Meigs and Jackson counties.

As for famous relatives, Friedrich Nietzche's mother was an Oehler. I got this information from his autobiography which got posted on the internet some time ago.

Best wishes,

James Johnson

Long time no hear! It is not only good to hear from you but to learn you have a computer and have joined the computer world of emails and other things. In this day and age you almost have to if you are to come close to staying up with the world around you.

As you probably have learned I have had a substantial amount of information from Brenda (Oiler) Heaton concerning the OS2 Oiler family in the past several months. She certainly seems to be a going concern and digging hard into your family line not just her part of it. Presumably she has some theories about the family' origin which she hasn't yet shared with me. She seems to think the line is descended from Conrad in some manner. At the moment I couldn't prove it or disprove it.

Thanks for the new pieces of information. I have gotten most of it entered all ready. The Oehler connection is a questionable one but who knows for sure. There are several Oehler families in this area, especially a few miles (20+) north of Omaha in Blair, NE. I have never had any contact with them. They operate a number of restaurants in several different nearby communities in NE and IA.

Well, just in case my dad doesn't get back to you right away, let me at least give you some of the pertinents for my husband. His name is Todd Charles Newell and he was born on January 9, 1972 in Livonia, Michigan at St. Mary's hospital. We were married in Ann Arbor, Michigan on August 8, 1999. Would you also like to know his parents/grandparents information? I'm sure he wouldn't mind supplying it, though perhaps that would be something for my dad to collect. Just let me know...

Hi! Rec'd the packet yesterday. Thank Your Very Much! Haven't had time to really study everything. I'd only recently learn that ANNA MARIA SINGER was wf of Johann Peter Harbaugh, Jr, but the person couldn't find her source!! Your data I think clarifies this, altho doesn't seem proven. So glad there are instructions to put the Descend Chart tog! I do have a question. It appears you have LUTICIA HAMMER as sister to my mother GENEVA EMMA ESSEX. Luticia is in the wrong place. She should connect to DANIEL EUGENE HAMMER who is son of Louis Cass Hammer. I also see that in one place is the name GORDIER & in another it's CORDIER, know it's same person & do believe it should be "C".

Morgan,

29657 29658

I have a reference to a Thomas Ohler (sic) who married Catharine Bumgardner on 6 February 1819 in Federick county, Virginia.

There were several Bumgardner marriages in Gallia county prior to the Civil War. I suspect some of the Bumgardners were in a position, at least geographically, to know Samuel Oiler's family.

This is speculation, but perhaps Samuel Oiler's family is connected with this Thomas Ohler.

Sandie

As I may have told you I have been away for almost a week in New Castle, IN to attend an Eilar family reunion/Thanksgiving Dinner and pay a visit with a cousin there.

Your letter enclosing the picture of Capt Jacob Iler was at hand when I returned yesterday. Several years ago one of his grandsons, Douglas Valentine Iler, visited me in Omaha. At the time he was motoring and passing through Omaha. He looked in the phone book for Iler's and subsequently spent an hour or so with my wife and I. At the time I wasn't able to pinpoint his relationship as I have done since. He and is wife lived in Spokane, WA for a number of years where he died in 1984. She died there in 1993. The picture is of his grandfather. I am very pleased to be able to add it to my collection.

As always I appreciate your thinking of me as regards genealogical matters and the picture in particular. I am attaching a digitized copy for your possible interest.

Copyright Restrictions

United States copyright law (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives may furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research". If a user requests, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This Institute reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Subject: Re: Jacob Eiler of York and Bedford Cos., PA

I am descended from Catherine Eiler who married the John Ling (Link in the partition). Their daughter Elizabeth, born 18 February 1788, married 49371 Jacob Stineman in Bedford County on 13 May 1806. They lived in lower Cambria County their entire married lives. Their son Elias was my great-great grandfather.

I put the land partition on the York County, Pennsylvania and Frederick County, Maryland querie boards as I had the feeling from some of the queries that a lot of researchers did not know where Jacob, son of Conrad, ended up after leaving York County. I have followed most of the early tax records for Bedford County, and Jacob appears on the list in 1774 through 1784. I don't have any between 1785 and 1796, but they would give us a better idea of exactly when he died.

It's a little hard to compare tax lists because the criteria changed over the years, but Jacob Ilor appears by himself (no others of that surname) in 1774 (the earliest I checked); for some reason he isn't on the tax list in 1775, but it may be his name was so mangled by the preparers of the list that I didn't pick it up, but under "single freemen" were Jonas 1238 Iller and Honicall Iller, both taxed as 15 shillings each. 13819

The 1776 list shows Jacob Eilor, but does not show Jonas or Honicall under freemen. The 1779 list shows Jacob Iler with 100 acres of land, 2 horses, 6 cattle, 2 sheep, and Honacle Iler, no land, 1 horse, 2 cattle, 0 sheep. The next tax list I have is for "Federal supply tax for the year 1783" - Jacob Oyler, 100 acres, 2 horses, 3 cattle, 4 sheep; Laurence Oyler, 1244 no land, 1 horse, 1 cattle, 0 sheep, and Nicholas, no land, 2 horses, 2 cattle, 0 sheep. Under "single freemen" was George Coffman, 40 acres of 1249? land, 2 horses. The 1784 tax list shows Laurence Iler, no land, 1 dwelling house, 2 whites in household; Jacob Iler, 100 acres, 1 dwelling house, 4 whites in household; Nicholas Iler, no land, 1 dwelling house and 11 whites 14487+8 in household. I have the 1796 tax list next and the only families on this list with the surname (and variations) is Laurance Iler, 330 acres and Peter Iler with 100 acres of land. Who was Honicall and Nicholas? Were they sons we know by another name? Nicholas must have been one of the oldest sons, if so, with 11 whites in the household in 1784!

I have corresponded with descendants of Benjamin Weddle and Anna Maria Eiler - Leitha Trefren, 135 Clover Lane, Medford, Oregon 92501, and of Valentine Eiler - Mary D. Gilmore, Knightsbridge Road, Manor Hghts., Skaneateles, NY and know personally another descendant of Valentine - Karen Purvis, here in Tucson.

If you would like family group sheets for John Ling and Catherine Eiler, I'll be glad to send them by snail mail. Their children are not 100% proven. He disposed of his land a number of years before he died - left no will - there was no estate and Catherine died without any estate as well. I have good information on Jacob Stineman and his wife Elizabeth Eiler, however. Just let me know.

Your messages of yesterday and today reached me while I am visiting in New Castle, IN. If all goes according to current plan I will be leaving for home sometime tomorrow and will drop you another note after I get home and can get settled back into a more normal routine. I'll certainly be pleased to have any information you care to send me.... the more the better so to speak. I am including below a canned message I use on occasion which explains a few more things about me and my activities.

For many years I have been a chronicler and researcher of the "Iler" family name and families..... Eiler-Eilar-Eyler-Oyler-Oiler-Iler. With the possible exception of Oiler I have living cousins with all these spellings of the family surname, and perhaps Oiler too if I but knew all the facts. I currently have data covering 46,400+ people (63,700+ names), and 2,500 (or more) individual family groups. All of these people are "Iler's", OR are members of, OR have some connection with, an "Iler" family.

I will gladly share/exchange data with you, and hopefully help both of us "put more of the pieces together".

A great many families of whom I have some record are "disjointed", i.e. unconnected, and I myself am looking for information which will help me link and consolidate/expand them for everyone's interest and benefit. There are probably actually only about 100 (give or take a dozen or two) truly different "Iler" families, on this continent. I have not actively explored overseas connections, though I have come by some such data. My "Iler" data covers dates from 1540 to the present. In some other families I even go back to the 1000's. Incidentally I am a genealogical oddity. My father who was born in 1851 was 66 when I was born in 1917. My mother was his 2nd wife, 30 years his junior, and I was an only child by that marriage. He had 11 siblings. He was the youngest in the family.

My father and I are descendants of John Conrad Euler (his surname can be found with any of the above - or other - spellings) the immigrant who landed at Philadelphia Sept. 11, 1729. I have record of over 15,000 of his descendants. A half dozen or so other families for whom I have some record have between 500 and 2,000 members each. Several dozen additional families in my files have known members in excess of 100 people. There are a great many more family groups with known members of less than 100 each. Some with no more known information than a marriage or census record with occasionally one or more children. Other people appear to be connected because of the similarity of addresses.

I hope I can help you and will hear further from you.

I understand you are the family historian and have a large basefiles on this family so I thought I'd pass this on to you. You may already have it, but when Dr. Eilar wrote his book he didn't know what happened to Jacob, son of Conrad, but this record was found by a fellow Eyler/Eiler researcher in Bedford County.

Phyllis

The population of the world has tripled in my life time yet in other ways it seems to get smaller. Last evening I had an email from Tom Hays and he mentioned the name Phyllis Winthurst of Arizona..... soooo I expect that is to whom I am writing at this moment. In your last email you mentioned Mary Gilmore's name. She is a cousin with whom I have frequent contact. You also mention having corresponded with descendants of Benjamin Weddle. Would one of them have been Calvin Weddle? If so he is another cousin with whom I have also had numerous contacts over the past several years. They are all recipients of my Iler Newsletter which I publish about quarterly.

Much of the information you mentioned in your recent email concerning Jacob and his family and their being residents of Bedford Co I have on file... and some additional information. I'll be pleased to provide you with much further information as I know things and certainly look forward to being able to add your descendancy as well as other information you given me a glimpse of having in your records of Jacob's family and their descendants. I was aware of Catherine's marriage to John Ling but knew nothing of their daughter Elizabeth or her marriage in turn to Jacob Stineman.

I have don't appear to have previously encountered the name of Karen Purvis and Leitha Trefan. I do have record of a Karen Teresa (Iler) Purvis who is a member of the Iler Family line I identify as my "NK" family. Could they be one and the same person? I suspect there is a good possibility the NK family is descended from Conrad but as of now I have no conclusive proof

I look forward to hearing from you further (with a postal address) so I can send you a number of things... including a few back issues of my newsletter (INL).

I have attached two copies of a chart showing some of Conrad's early descendants. Hopefully you will be able to read one or both them (the same). My grandfather is the Solomon Iler born 1804 who shows in the "J-Base" section of the charts.

Myself, son, and grandsons live in Baker County, GA
My Mother lives in Dougherty County, GA
My sister lives in Dougherty County and has 3 children and one grandson. If you have interest in details, let me know.

That's us up to date.

I have one more question...When either birth or death location is different than location of residence, how should this be handled?

I have a lead on the ancestors of William Iler b.(1794-1800). If it pays off (which I doubt), I'll for sure let you know.

I'm going to take things slow, even though I've already found that it has taken possession of me.

So for the time being I'm keeping what I pick up in a file to enter later.

You said once that you had 600+ of William Iler descendants. If you could share some of that I would appreciate it. You have already given me more than anyone should expect and I am very thankful for it. I don't want to be an imposition and if at any time I ask for something that is a little much, don't hesitate to tell me. I surely do not want to damage our relationship.

Thank you,
Judy & Ernie

Subject: Oiler history

Brenda,

22272 22762

Yesterday I got a letter from a cousin of ours who lives in Alabama. She is a descendant of Caroline Oiler McFarland, sister of our Mailinda. She has spoken, a long time ago, with another relative who knew Caroline.

Caroline dressed like the Pennsylvania Dutch. Caroline said the original spelling was Oyler, even though the records say Oiler. They came from Germany to America by way of Scotland and Ireland. The Oylers came as indentured servants to the rich. They seemed to have been associating with the McFarlands before their arrival in Ohio, which would have been in Virginia.

Caroline and Malinda's sister Eliza died in the poor house in Meigs county, which would have been during the 1860s.

This is probably good information.

22480 36006

Also, I found info on the internet about Susannah Oiler and Almon Lansford Scurlock. Supposedly, Susannah (also known as Susan) is the child of Henry Oiler and Mary Ann Terry. This changes my theory, but it makes sense. I am going to have to contact whoever put this web site on the internet.

Best wishes,

James Johnson

Subject: More Eiler info

Morgan,

I've received some information about my Eiler line that came from a book listed below. This information continues expanding "sideways" the Eiler family tree Schuylkill, Pa.

EYO

24805 (48805)

We shared information before about John Eiler(Johannes Eyler) of Schuylkill County, Pa. who had five children; John, Kate(Catarina ?), Betsy(Elizabeth ?), Henry and Daniel .
24807 24811

Betsy married Frank Mellon 49916 49917

Kate married a Peter Strause. (I have a relative who recently met a descendant of Kate and Peter, and I hope this also turns out more information, at least about Eiler/Strause line! ....)

49894 - EYz

Johannes' son John was a large landowner at Schuylkill Haven and at Eiler's Hollow. He lived eighty three years. He had married Jacob Schappell's
95 daughter Hannah, and they had these children: Mary Eiler (married John Bubeck), Maria Eiler (married Levi Reichert), Hannah Eiler (married first to John Krietzel and second to Samuel Bonberger), Emaline Eiler (married Joseph Freeman), Susan Eiler (married William Killian), Israel Eiler and Frank Eiler(married Leah Baker). 49905-6

49907

Frank Eiler was born April 13, 1840 North Manheim Township. Pa., and apparently was alive when this book was written in 1916. He married John Baker's daughter Leah and they had at least 7 children:

Harry Eiler and Clayton Eiler, both Barbers at Schuylkill Haven. 49909-49910 fRANK eiler was a bARBER AND MUSIC DEALER sPRING cITY, pA.
George Eiler died young 49911
Robert Eiler was also a Barber (Landingville, PA.) 49912
Elwood Eiler was born Nov. 24, 1861 and was a Barber until 1903, then becoming a Music Dealer in Schuylkill Haven, also leading the Band . 49913
May Eiler married Arthur Rich of Pottsville. 49914-5

Leah Baker Eiler above, died Dec. 11, 1909. 49908

{notes Sch. Co. Biographies Vol.2}

Morgan, do you have anything additional of these Eiler's or families which might add to this tree?

I knew you would be wanted these names for your files...

Thank you for the newsletter you sent awhile back, and for mentioning me in it.

Bruce Eiler.

Bruce

Many thanks for the additional Eiler information. A quick cursory check of my files this morning revealed very little current info on any of these people in my files. There is mention of Israel Eiler and a possible "hit" on one or two others but that is about all. I need to do a better job of checking and will look forward to doing so as soon as I can fit in into my schedule but it may not be for awhile, possibly not until the new year. At present my calendar is pretty full with other pressing activities and projects. I will get back to you as soon as I can fit it into my schedule and do a meaningful job of searching and recording.

I greatly appreciate your sending me this added information. Every bit helps.

* Rebecca Ann Lewis was born in Indianapolis, Indiana; how Rebecca and William met is beyond me. 19870

Don't know if this rings any bells with you, but I sure hope it does because I'm also interested in the Hudson family, which I can find nothing on. (I saw that you had a Russel Hudson being born in 1825, made me curious because my great - grandfather is Russell S. Hudson born 1881, thought maybe they are grandfather and grandson. I know they are not father and son because Russell S. Hudson's father is Jacob Hudson born 1848).

Thanks for any and all help!

Erica

Hi Morgan,

I decided to give myself an early Christmas present yesterday - I went to Carnegie Library and went through some more census records.

I found "my" Henry (7315, C41A) living in Allegheny Township, Westmoreland County, PA in both the 1830 and 1840 Census. He was listed as "OYLEN" in 1830, and "OLIER" in 1840. This data corresponds with a deed transfer I found in the Westmoreland County Courthouse which indicated that Henry purchased some land from a John Byerly in 1825.

It's unfortunate that the pre-1850 Census don't provide much information. But the "counts" of males/females in the various age groups pretty well matches with what other information you and I have gathered/exchanged.

However, as we've discussed before, I still have a "discrepancy" with Henry's birth date....your data shows 8 June 1~~8~~791. Henry's tombstone and local church records have 10 September 1769. Furthermore, it appears Henry really "thought" he was born in 1769 - in the 1830 Census, there is one male (Henry?) listed in the 60 - 70 age group (but there is also another (unknown?) male listed in the 20 - 30 age group!). If Henry was born in 1791, he should have been in the 30 - 40 group in the 1830 Census. But, in the 1840 Census, there is no "1" in the 70 - 80 male ages. In the 1850 Census, Henry has his age listed as 81 - which corresponds with the 1769 date.

(I belabor this point only for purposes of self-enjoyment - not to bore you! I realize this is not an exact science and that all the data available was recorded by humans, thus prone to error! Thanks for indulging me!)

On with more data…

In the 1830 Census, two entries down from Henry is a Peter Oyler. Enumerated with this entry are:

1240 ?

1 male between 10 - 15
2 males between 20 - 30
1 male between 70 - 80
1 female between 60 - 70

There was no entry for Peter Oyler in the 1840 Census. From the "Book" you made for me in February, it shows that my Henry had a brother John Peter (7160, C414), born 26 Apr 1781. If this Census entry was for him, there should have been a male listed in the 40 - 50 age group. Perhaps this Peter is Henry's uncle? Your "Book" shows a Peter (1240, C47), birth 1753 - 1755. This seems to fit this Census data - any thoughts?

Okay, enough speculative stuff - on with some "hard" Census data!

1880, Cyrus Eyler (youngest son of Henry (7315, C41A) and Elizabeth (7316, C41A*) (sorry, I don't have your "C" number for Cyrus) …anyway, Cyrus was 47 years old and was a farmer in Upper Burrell (new name for Allegheny Township), Westmoreland County. Enumerated with Cyrus are:

28337

Name	Relationship	Age	Birth Place
Rachel	wife	41	PA	1839		28338
Harriet C.	Daughter	20	PA	1860		28339

ENTERED

(So, Elizabeth (7316, C41A*) made it to 1880! One of my quests is to find her grave! She's not buried next to Henry - another minor "mystery".)

1880, Henry Eyler - probably the son of Joseph Eyler (7317, C41A1) and Christianna Byerly. They lived in "Skellytown", Westmoreland

County. Enumerated with Henry are:

1880, Henry A. Eyler, age 33, son of Elijah Eyler (7218, C41A2) and Eliza Jane. This "Henry" was a farmer and lived in Upper Burrell, Westmoreland County. Enumerated with Henry are:

Name	Relationship	Age	Birth Place
Lizie M	Wife	25	PA	1855 –	48891
George B.	Son	2	PA	1878	49924
Lena L.	Daughter	10/12	PA	1879	48892
Margret Beacom	Mother-in-law	49	PA	1831	49923

ENTERED

There were several "Beacom" (a.k.a. "Bacon") families living near the Henry Eyler (7315, C41A) farm - not surprising one of his grandsons married one!

A bit of a sad note to this one - I now can "fit" a tombstone's inscription I found into the Family Tree puzzle. "George B." listed above is George Bliss Eyler, born 19 January 1878, died 6 March 1881. He is buried in Bethesda Lutheran Church Cemetery, not very far from his gf, Elijah, and his g-gf Henry.

1880, H. I. Eyler - I believe this is Henry Erwin (or, Irwin) Eyler, age 27, (born 2 February 1853, died 1904) son of Henry Eyler, Jr. (7319, C41A3) and Jane McWilliams (28329, C41A3*). THIS "Henry" lived in Penn Township, Allegheny County and was enumerated with the following:

Name	Relationship	Age	Birth Place
Emma	Wife	23	PA	1857	49925
Ida May	Daughter	4	PA	1876	49926
Clara B.	Daughter	2	PA	1878	49927

ENTERED

1880, C. A. Eyler, female, age 53. Lived in North Huntington, Westmoreland County. I'm not really sure who she is! My first thought was that she was Christianna, widow of Joseph Eyler (7317, C41A1), but the children's names don't match very well with other names I've found. Anyway, enumerated with C. A. are: b. ca 1827 28364 PROB.

Name	Relationship	Age	Birth Place
Peter	Son	23	PA	1857	28366
Lyde	Daughter	19	PA	1861	28368 ?

Elija	Son	9	PA	1871	49950
John	Son	5	PA	1875	49951

ENTERED

Moving into the 20th Century, I found a "Cyrus" Eyler, whom I thought to be the youngest son of Henry (7315, C41A), but it doesn't seem like a "fit" - wife's name is wrong. Anway, here's what I found on this "Cyrus" - his age is 69, born January, 1831, was a carpenter. Lived at 824 South Avenue, City of Allegheny (now the "North Side" of the city of Pittsburgh), Allegheny County. Enumerated with Cyrus are:

Name	Relationship	Age	Born	Birth Place	Occupation
Rebecca	Wife	62	May 1838	PA		28338 ?

was born April 1870. Enumerated with Cyrus B. are:

Frederick O.	Son	5	Dec 1894	PA	49931
Arnold W.	Son	3	Jun 1896	PA	49932

Here's another "unknown" from the 1900 Census - August Eiler, age 38, born Jan 1862, lived alone on Drey Street, in Arnold, Westmoreland County.

1900 Census, Barbara Eyler, age 73, born Jan 1827, daughter of Henry (7315, C41A) and Elizabeth (7316, C41A*), enumerated with her sister Sarah and brother-in-law Jacob Willery.

Henry A. Eyler, age 53, born Apr 1847, Elijah Eyler (7218, C41A2) and Eliza Jane. Still living in Upper Burrell, Westmoreland County - but he has more children listed with him than in the ~~1880~~ Census: 1900

Morgan -- I was very interested to learn from Frank Iler's E-mail that you were quite an authority on the Iler family. I knew very little about them until I was able to find Frank on GenForum and learn about the ancestry of my gggrandmother Mary (Polly) Iler who married my gggrandfather Joseph T. Garrison 18 March 1838 in Georgia.
My great grandparents (their child) James C. Garrison married Ann Elizabeth Bacon 25 September 1866, he was in the CSA. In the 1880's they, with many other family members moved to McKinney, Texas.
My grandparents were Esther Elizabeth Garrison (their child) who married John K, Edwards and lived in McKinney and then later in Waco, Texas.
My father Eugene Robert Edwards was born in Waco, and later moved to California where I was born.
I would like to know more about the origin of the Ilers, before they lived in North Carolina and Georgia. Do you have that information? Were they from Alsace-Lorraine?
Also I was wondering about your given name Morgan as I had a Morgan line who also lived in North Carolina and Georgia. Katie Martha Morgan born about 1790 married James Caleb Garrison, they were my ggggrandparents. Family history states that Katie was related to the family of General Daniel Morgan of revolutionary fame.
I would love to know about your heritage and hope to hear from you.

I've run into another Jeremiah, b.1832, son of Lewis OYLER by Sarah Louise BROOKS. 20892✓ LC0
He doesn't fit, but I wonder if Lewis & my Jeremiah might be brothers?

Any help would be appreciated.

Bill

Hi...

It wasn't my quote <G> ; however,

The little bit that I have on "my" Jeremiah OYLER, and he is "mine" if my data is correct:

b.1811 from gravestone (not personally sighted)
d.Oct 1891 from gravestone
bur. Sardis Cemetery, Westmoreland Co., PA poss. the Jeremiah who was owner of property bounded in part by that of Abraham Rudolph, per Rudolph's admin of 1849, in Washington Twp., Westmoreland Co., PA marr. Sarah SAGER [variation on SAEGER]b.5 Oct 1811, d.1 Jul 1890, bur. w/husb. 22673
[I'm still working on Sarah, believe that she was of a SAEGER family, Mennonites, of Bucks Co., PA, but when her branch went West, or via where, is not known yet]

1 Ulysses Grant 10 Feb 1866 d.o., d.1944, mar. Margaret C. ____, no known issue 49962
3 James Sherman 13 Feb 1867 d.o., mar. Elizabeth Ramsley, had issue 49964
5 Anna Mamie 15 Aug 1870 d.o., d.Jan 1948, mar. John Mattson, no known issue 49966
7 Cora May 3 Jun 1874 d.o., mar. Clark Jennings, no known issue 49968
9 Laura Viola 28 Nov 1875 d.o., d.14 Mar 1959, mar. William Ebner, had issue 49970
71 John Marvin 28 Sep 1878 d.o., d.19 Aug 1963, mar. Alice Stout, had issue 49972

I'd be glad to carry this further, re descent, if you have an interest.
Myrtle May & William Johnson had eleven children, two of whom d. practically at birth.
One daughter was Emily Ada, who mar. Alfred Whitehead COLLINS, they are my parents. 49981
49979 49980

I'm never sure where to cut off, as I know not everyone follows every family line, some staying only with the male lines. My own preference is to follow all lines of descent from every ancestor [or suspected ancestor, or cousin <g>]. This has created a somewhat large file >136,000 individuals, and constantly growing. My father, although he wasn't deeply into genealogy, had a Quaker background in the Delaware River Valley, and they kept great records! His g.grandfather married an Abbott, who was descended from Ann Mauleverer, who had descent from every signer of the Magna Charta who has surviving descent, so you can see how collecting cousins just grows & grows for me. Unfortunately, my mother's side has not been as easy. I can't get beyond the immigrant JOHNSON, who was the father of William Arthur & Sydney Samuel. That was George, who had a dairy route, both in England & here in PA. The Hilty family came from Switzerland, and were pre-revolutionary immigrants. 49982 49983

ENTERED

James Alexander HILTY was the son of George M. HILTY & Rachel TAWNEY. The TAWNEY family came from England to VA, apparently through Newfoundland, where a son was born, being in St. Mary's Co., MD in 1635. A branch of TAWNEY migrated to Straban Twp., York Co., PA, where Rachel was born. Her mother was a Sarah TASKER, and I know nothing more on her.

I expect I've run on more than you care to know about.....

Hopefully Jeremiah is not one of your disjointed cousins, but I'll be grateful for whatever you might have on him, and his lines.

Here is the obituary. If you find she is a relative, there is also a picture of her and a regular newspaper article about her death because she was a Wellston City Councilman-elect.

Colleen K. Vicars 50259

Colleen K. Vicars, 46, of 5 N. Massachusetts Ave., Wellston, Ohio, died on Tuesday, Dec. 28, 1999 at Holzer Medical Center in Gallipolis.
Born Feb. 12, 1953 in Wellston, Colleen was a lifelong resident of the area. She was the daughter of Kirby and Nancy (Mantz) Oiler of Wellston, who survive. Colleen is also survived by her husband of 25 years, William C. (Bill) Vicars. 24249 – 21950 50260
Colleen was a graduate of Wellston High School with the Class of 1971. She received her certification in Cosmetology with a Management License.
Colleen was a Neighborhood Watch Program Organizer, Council member-elect of the city of Wellston, member of the J-Vac Board and member of Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church.
Colleen is also survived by a brother and sister-in-law, 36706 Kevin and Joy 24251 Oiler of Wellston and a special niece, Caitlin. Other survivors include: Father-in-law and mother-in-law, Bill and Frances Vicars and sister-in-law, Kathleen Vicars, all of Wellston; 50263-4 maternal grandmother, Alice M. Mantz, Wellston; uncles, Richard Mantz, Wellston and Martin Mantz, Jackson; aunts, Marilyn Mantz Phillips, Wellston and Ruth Ann Mantz, Columbus; numerous cousins and many friends.
Being the animal lover that Colleen was, she will be sorely missed by her dogs, Floyd and Maggie, and cats, Patsy Cline, Buckley and Prissy.
Colleen was preceded in death by paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Oiler, Sr. and maternal grandfather, Joseph Mantz.
Calling hours will be held from 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 30 at the Jenkins Funeral Home in Wellston. Wake services will be held at 8 p.m. Mass of Christian Burial will be held at Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church at 11 a.m. on Dec. 31. Burial will follow in Ridgewood Cemetery.
Memorial contributions maybe made to the Wellston Neighborhood Watch Program, c/o The First National Bank of Wellston.

I am searching for information on the children of Johannes (John) and Catharina (Berkheiser) Eiler. They lived in South Manheim Twp./Wayne Twp., Schuylkill Co., PA their whole lives. John was born 1804 and died 1885 and Catharina was born 1804 and died 1871. They had at least three children: Rebecca (Eiler) Berger, [Daughter] Eiler (b.1825-1830), and Annetta (b.Abt 1835). Thank you!

Gregory,
50242 50239 50241
My great grandfather was William David Eiler born Berks Cty. PA in 1886. His parents were John & Sarah Eiler. I believe Johns parents were also John. They were from Weissbaden Germany. I am still doing research. My dad's whole family was from Berks County. Maybe we have a connection. I will keep you up to date.

Morgan,
Thanks for contacting me re the Iler family. My Iler line is as follows working back from myself:
Suzanne Blaney Schlecht (dau of) 50168 NI032211
James Hugh Blaney (son of) 50167
Charles Willard Blaney (son of) 50166
Mabel Grace Gibson (dau of) 45274
William T. Gibson and Cora May Blanche ILER (dau of) 17290-17289
Elva E. Trowbridge and Daniel N. ILER (son of) 17287-17286
Sarah Waggoner and Daniel ILER. 16800-16799

Cora May Blanche ILER was born 2 Nov 1857 in Williams Co Ohio and died 4 Oct 1880 in Lucas Co OH. Her brother was Conroy Webster ILER as mentioned in my posting. Cora's father Daniel N. ILER was born abt 1826 in Tuscarawas Co OH and died 12 Sept 1868 in Bryan, Williams Co OH. Daniel N.'s father Daniel ILER died 8 Apr 1856 in Williams Co OH.

Beyond that, I have only sketchy information about the ILER's that I have been given but unable to verify as yet. If you think my Ilers connect with the "group" please let me know and I would be happy to share what I have. I've acquired pension files, burial records, probate records, etc. There are many decendants of Cora MB Iler Gibson through her daughter Mabel (my great grandmother). I have also recently made contact with a great grandson of Conroy Webster Iler.

I look forward to hearing from you! Incidentally I use to live in Grand Island NE. We were there from 1994 -1998. We have since relocated to Fond du Lac WI. It's much closer to our families in IL, WI, and MI.

Morgan,

Thanks for answering my post. You don't know hard it is to find any information on the Iler's, but then again, you maybe you do.

I don't have much, but what I do have, maybe you can find a link somewhere with what you have.

I hope you can help me, I've been trying to find anything about the Iler's since my grandfather's death almost 10 years ago. After going through his personal effects, we found where he had written down some of what his mother had told him about her Iler family, so I decided to take up where he had left off.

Anyway, thanks for any help!

give that family a lot of new things for gifts at Christmas, and also donate clothes and the like. And I just happened to have a couple of artificial Christmas trees, so I gave them that and other decorations as well.

So, parties were done and behind us. On Tuesday, yesterday my husband Dave had surgery, a hemorriodectomy, and I spent the day and much of the early evening at the hospital. Last night the pain shots they gave him in the hospital wore off and he took his new prescribed pain pills. He was/is in so much pain. I was up until about five or five thirty in the am with him. He couldn't sleep because of the pain. So, I didn't get much sleep, I am going to go nap for a bit before the kids come home, I can't run on no sleep. And who knows what tonight holds.

Hi again. I started this morning and saved it to finish later, now it's later. I had to do something to stay awake but didn't want to do any genealogy because being so tired I was afraid of entering wrong information. Hope you don't mind.

Day before yesterday I was contacted by a couple, Bob and Eunice Oiler Newsome, they are descendants in the OS2 Line. Eunice's grandparents were Kirby Oiler and Zella Loza Buckley. I have a lot of information on this >1952 family, it is in paper form and am working on getting it all loaded on PC. They seem like very nice people. We are to exchange information, so that's one more line.

On one of my mail lists, there was an article on the Oilers from the Jackson County, Ohio History and Families Compiled by the Jackson County Genealogical Society. What's funny is, it is on Eunice's line of family too. I will send it in this email.

And, this is a biggie and it just makes me feel rotten, and upset. The files that you sent me on the reports you made, I was saving in my mail center, I have the settings set to save mail for two weeks, it deleted itself along with some other correspondence with other Oiler relatives. I went in to mail center because I felt confident that I could load them on the PC, and it was gone. I looked everywhere, but it is gone. I checked my settings and they are still set where I put them, but for some reason, PC deleted them and others from mail center.

Well, I better get going, have to feed everyone and do a little bit of something. Take Care. Be Well. Write when you can. The article follows.
Sincerely, Brenda

Subject: Hi Morgan!

I am still hearing from cousins. They all remember me but I am afraid I don't remember some of them. Of course, I was probably so bad they couldn't forget me. I don't know. I did find out one of your mistakes is for child #8 of my grandparents it is not Andreas but Adrian Randolph. Still checking date of birth and death. He has a son Adrian Randolph Jr. born in 1939. He also has a daughter Nancy born in 1940. I still have a lot to check on this but I do know that Andreas and Rudey are wrong. Also, there is a Dorothy Iler b. Feb 9, 1920, still living. She married Bruce Johnson and had two daughters Janet Mae or May and Sandra Kay. This is the 10th child.

This is just to let you know that I am making progress. Thanks, Mary Dee

Morgan,

Thanks for the Iler Newsletter. As always informative and interesting.

Found a couple more Oiler names at this site when I was looking for another name. I don't know if you have them in your database or not.

Take care,

Hi Morgan,

Hope the world is treating you well this Saturday morning!

I got to (re)meet several relatives last night at the Funeral Home. Ronald Bert Eiler (son of Charles Bert Eiler (C41A356, 30846)) passed away this past Tuesday - here's the obituary:

50229 50230

26390 EILER, Ronald Bert, 68 (b 16 Jan 1932), of New Kensington (Pennsylvania) on Tues., Feb. 1, 2000 (ret. craneman, Edgewater Steel Co., Oakmont employee); beloved husband of Barbara Flotta Eiler; father of Scott of New Kensington and Joel of Westminster, MD and Mrs. David (Lauri) Bailey of Plum and three grandchildren; brother of Charles Louis 26397
231 Eiler of Oakmont, Elinor Bouch of Saltsburg and Donna Howard of Plum; setp-brother of Donald Bell of Oakmont. Friends may call Fri. 2-4 p.m. & 7-9 p.m. ROSS G. WALKER FUNERAL HOME, LTD. 217 Freeport Road, New Kensington. A Blessing Service will be held at 10 a.m. Sat. in the Funeral Home.

I read the above to my dad on the phone and he asked if I would go with him to the funeral home. Dad said he last saw his cousin Ron this past fall. For what it's worth, Ron passed quickly - massive heart attack. He apparently led a full live and was healthy up to the end - no history of heart problems!

I missed meeting Dan Howard (my second cousin, who you introduced to me via email!), but I did meet his mother Donna Howard - great lady. I also got to speak with Elinor(e?) Bouch (whom I did remember from 30 odd years ago) - another great lady. It's a shame extended family seems to only get together at weddings and funerals.... From your newsletters, you attend family reunions - perhaps it's time we "Eilers" in western PA start having them!

Take care,

Jim

Morgan,

Yes, this map shows the land that JOHN EILER (previously known as Johannes Eyler), bequeathed to his wife and children. Daniel, Henry and John have clearly defined properties. Kate married Peter Strause, and their property was next to Daniel's. 3>715 ?

You can also note F. Mellon's property above Henry Eiler's land, and a Frank Mellon married Elizabeth Eiler.

Then, notice land marked J. Shappel. Jacob Schappel's daughter Hannah married Johannes son John. More neighbors may turn up as being connected to this line of Eiler's !!

The map really made for an interesting find for my family history, and I will share more info when it "comes to light" ! The cousin that sent me the map said that after Daniel Eiler died, his wife sold the property. Later it was bought back by the Killian's. You can see in the notes I emailed you previously that John Eiler daughter Susan Eiler married William Killian. 49906 EYz5* 49905 EYz5

More about Eiler's whenever I obtain it !

Bruce.

Morgan,

I have some new "old" Eiler news !

EPS ?

Michael Eiler, having around 150 ac. land Berks County, Pa. and died around 1785. Four children; John, Adam, Elizabeth, and Magarik. Wife was Philipina!

We considered before that my John Eiler could be a brother to Adam Eiler Pennsylvania. Perhaps John(48805) and Adam (32706) sons of Michael and Philipina ?

Do these sound like any Pennsylvanian names in your Eiler information, or unknown listings ?
This is all I have on them, right now.

Your Elizabeth Eiler (7940) and Magaret (7314) ???

very doubtful

I've seen Philippina !800 Pa. Census index pg. 566, but don't know if same one?

Thanks again for responding to my information!

Subject: tid bits

Hello Morgan,

How've you been? Hope all is well....

I've not been too busy on the "Eiler" side of the tree - I've been chasing some info on my mother's side for a few weeks. But while I was down at Carnegie Library a few weeks ago, I found a few tid bits about some of the Eylers in Western PA (new stuff in bold):

Henry A. Eyler (C41A22, 28359)
Born April 1847, Died 1922

Mary Elizabeth A. Beacom Eyler (C41A22*, 48891) (wife of Henry A.)
Born February 1855, Died 1936

Lena Leotti Eyler (C41A221, 48892) (Daughter of Henry and Mary Elizabeth)
Born 28 July 1879, Died 1946

Harry Amos Eyler (C41A222, 48893)
Born 15 January 1882, Died 1923

The above are all buried: Hankey Cemetery, Hankey Church Road, Sardis, Westmoreland County, PA

And lastly, Sarah Eyler (C41A4, 47270) and Jacob Willery (C41A14*, 48667) were married 20 July 1854 in a Civil Ceremony, in Burrell Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, according to a book titled Marriage Certificates, Westmoreland County, PA: 1852-1855.

I'll send more as I find it!

Take care,

Jim

Subject: VY ILER

Morgan,

Received your news letter, thanks.

I have encountered 2 variations of ILER that are not on your list. These are common on a temporary basis. They are ISLER and IHLER.

The following is a little more than a theory: re William.

I hope the formatting on these copied and pasted items holds together through the e-mail. If you have trouble with them, let me know. Open this full screen and it should be ok.

1820 Census of Bullock County

Head of Family	Free white males						Free White Females
	10	16	18	26	45	up	10	16	26	45	up
	0	10	16	18	26	45	0	10	16	26	45	Slaves
Iler, William	*	*	1	*	*	1	*	1	*	*	*	11

At first I thought the younger male and the female were live-in workers because our William at this time was already married to Elizabeth Jones...Then the strong probability of young William being the male and the female being his wife popped up. William and Elizabeth's first child was born Nov. 26, 1820 and the census easily could have been done prior to that date. One negative point…this would put young William's b. 1801-1802 which is later than any estimate I've seen. But if Elizabeth was born Dec. 3, 1803 she would be 16 on this Census (taken prior Nov. 26). If this is the case, the older William would be at least 45 and born 1775 or before.

This is what I based my beliefs on...one thing is for sure our William isn't the head of this household.

1850 Bulloch County Census

298 307 Iler, William 50 m w Va	This shows our William born 2 yrs sooner than the 1820 census.
Elizabeth 49 f Ga	But it also shows Elizabeth 2 years older than b. 12/2/1803.
Mary 27 f	Maybe neither were home and ole Adam did his best **:) .
Rhody 25 f	Mistakes were made on the census reports back then.
Barbary 24 f
Frances 20 f

53

Gracy 18 f

Amey 15 f

Sarah 12 f

Adam 10 m

Virginia 8 f

Margaret 6 f

Note: ei...Martha Ann married in 1842 therefore not a part of the household, Mary was next in Dec 1850.

This also shows that Mary was born in 1823 not 1822 if the census was done in or after Oct.

It sure looks like we have William Sr. and Jr. here.

There are 2 William Ilers in SC that I am probing into and a female, Nettie (I think). I'm just trying to trace our folks back up the coast. It is really difficult when you don't know which county in each state where they may have lived.

More to support my belief:

I always assumed that the older William died after the 1820 census but he may have moved away, the following is what rang a bell. I have not investigated Muscogee County.

REPRINT of OFFICIAL REGISTER of LAND LOTTERY OF GEORGIA 1827

Fortunate Drawers: William Iler,

Number: 118
District: 5
County: Muscogee County

1820 Bulloch Co. Census has Wlm as 45+ yrs old (theory: with young Wlm and wife as part of his household).
1830 Bulloch Co. Census Index still shows only one William Iler household.
1840 Bulloch Co. Census Index shows two William Iler households, (theory: young and old Wlm.) 1850 Bulloch Co. Census has only one William Iler household.

The older William could have moved to Muscogee County, either didn't like it or maybe got sick and came back prior to 1840. He'd be at least 65 years old in 1840 and could have died prior to 1850. Look at the ID#'s of 1840 Census. They apparently lived next to each other.

Thank you again and please let me know your thoughts on the William x 2 theory.

Thomas Kincade vs. Cunningham--O. S. 22; N. S. 8--Bill filed 30th April, 1802. Thomas, on 10th January, 1771, purchased of Jacob Persinger a tract in Greenbrier called the Spring Lick tract, which Persinger had brought of Christian Landers, who had made a settlement thereon. It was surveyed for the Greenbrier Company in 1751, 6th October. The bond was assigned to Walter Cunningham. Andrew Donnelly sued Thomas on the endorsement, charging fraud and obtaining judgment. Margaret Reid was aunt or near relative of Walter and lived in Augusta. Walter lives in Kentucky, Jessamine County. John and Robert Fulton in 1753 raised four acres of corn on the place now owned and lived on by Wm. Renick, and James Burnsides was living with them for the purpose of digging Ginsang. Boughman's fort was broken up by the Indians in 1754. Thomas Kincade had a son, William, who deposes. Col. Saml. Vance deposes, 10th February, 1803, that in 1765 he, with Jackson Early, was in Greenbrier hunting bears. Wm. McClenachan made an improvement there in 1763. Jacob Persinger was son of Jacob Persinger, Sr., deceased, 1803. Eve Johnston testifies she lived within a mile of Christian (Christopher) Lander in 1753-54 in Greenbrier.

Morgan,

I came across information of another non-related surname that you might want ?

I've seen some Oyler's connected to Ohler, and this veteran was from Carroll Co, Md. where there's alot of Eyler's!!

Subject: more Eiler news,

Morgan,

Hi ! I hope the day is going well for you. By the sound of your email the other day, things were not going too good !?

As you know I have been trying to figure out any Eiler information in the Berks/ Schuylkill Counties area, in hopes of either ruling out or adding (to my family history.) I've been given some copies of Eiler marriage documents from Berks County, Pa. that I will send to you to peruse. I don't think there is any direct connection with these names to my Eiler line, unless it would be way back, or in Germany !

To highlight one record, however, William David Eiler married to a G. DeLong in 1912. 50493

I do think there's a great possibility that this William Eiler connects to your EJY file , maybe the son to #24880 and #24881.

50239 50241

William's parents were John (Eiler) & Sarah______  your file , John Eiler & Sarah Reedy?
24880 24881

William and father residing in same area (Reading, Berks Co., Pa.) and time period could match, and each with same middle name "DAVID".

Anyway, I will send copies to you in the mail.

I would be interested if you see any other "puzzle pieces" that can be added to these Eiler families...

Bruce.

Morgan, thank you for poking up the fire.

I don't need much prodding to get the fire roaring. I haven't had time to really study it. When (if) something comes together, I'll want you to analyze my thoughts.

Another subject:

I wrote you a while back about Lee Roy Iler and sent this:

I have an uncle, Lee Roy Iler, married Marie ? in Ohio. He worked at a GM plant.

I was wondering if he really is my Lee Roy ILER and if he is, do you have him linked to any other ILERS in Ohio?

31639 → VY 1923)

I have discovered this in fact is my uncle Lee (Lee Roy Mathew Iler) ss# 268-28-3003. I wrote for the original SS application and it shows him born in Bulloch County, GA. Parents "Kern Mathew 19982 ✓ 983 Iler and Ida Anderson" of course we know Kern was Mathew Mikell Iler's nick name. Born Jan. 30, 1894. At the time, 02/16/1948, he lived at 4715 Main Ave, Norwood, Ohio. F - M

If you would like a copy of the document, let me know.

19986 19987
There was some confusion between Russell Lee Roy Iler, m. Maxie Lee NeSmith, he died in October 1926; and Russell (Bussie) Iler who now turns out to be in actuality, Russell Lee Roy Iler. 19986
19985

Then the b. date of 1894 belongs to Lee Roy Mathew Iler, m. Marie ?, he died Dec, 1985; as stated earlier.

I have a lot of data to put into the computer and when I get it done on Mathew Mikell Iler family, I'll sent it to you.

Again thank you for the information on the many William Ilers and all the help you have given me.

Take care and let me hear from you,

Ernie

Mr. Iler,

I have been told that you are a fount of information on the Ilers. My GGgrandfather was Daniel N. Iler (b. abt. 1826) of Bryan, Ohio. His son, Conroy Webster Iler (b. 1854) was my Ggrandfather and Conroy's daughter, Thanis Iler was my grandmother. 50525

I have enjoyed learning genealogic research and have been attempting to construct a family tree. Lately, I seem to have hit the proverbial wall. Corresponding with a newly discovered cousin, Lloyd Woodward of Piper City, Illinois, I've discovered Daniel N.'s father, Daniel Iler(b. abt. 1778) and his brother(?)William, both in Ohio but have been unable to go back further.

Do you have any information on this branch of the family and would you be inclined to share it?

I would be grateful.

Sincerely,

Morgan,

Thanks for answering my latest email so promptly. Yes, I can barely imagine what it must be like finding time to keep up with all of your different files. You seem to keep "organization " a priority !

I'm keeping so busy in my spare time working on just Eastern Pa.!

I'm sending these different tidbits of separate family lines below, and I don't think I will find a "spot" for any of these lines to connect with .
Maybe they fill some of your empty spaces in files.

Survey

BLOOMFIELD FORUM - WATER SYSTEM

It is obvious from serveral meetings which have been held recently that Bloomfield Forum when taken as a whole has water system problems. BUT the most puzzling part of the situation is to properly identify the exact nature and extent of the "problem". Some have a problem and others do not seem to be effected, or effected only minorly. Accordingly we ask that you help us zero in on how wide spread (or not) our problem is.

PLEASE complete this survey regardless of of whether your unit is recognizably effected on not.

5 - Very bad, extensive, very troublesome
4 - Moderately bad, somewhat troublesome
3 - Noticeable but livable
2 - Barely noticeable, trace, light
1 - None, not recognizable

July 7, 1919
□I am the above named claimant for a pension. I have been blind for about fourteen years. I never attended school, and I cannot read or write. I do not know how old I am, but I think I must be about 66 years of age. I am told that my son, known as Charles Werley, is 49 years old. He was born at the County Infirmary, and I think I was about 17 years old when he was born. I was not married to his father, whose name was Werley. I am told that he was born at the Infirmary in 1870, May 15; I suppose that is correct.

As near as I can remember, I was living at Lawyer Bachman□s along the river in Tiffin, I do not remember the name of the street, when they took me to the Infirmary. As well as I can remember, shortly after my son was born, I went to keep house for Isaac Iler who lived several miles from 17697 Tiffin, but I do not know in what township it was. I stayed at Iler□s all summer, and when I left there, I went to keep house for Reuben Lott who lived in Liberty Township, in this county. I do not know how long I lived at Mr. Lott□s, but I think it was several years.

From his house, I went to keep house for Joe Ogle, who lived in the country, about four miles from Tiffin, near Mr. John Haverstick□s home. I must have been living there or with Mr. Lott in the summer of 1880, but I do not know positively. I think I was living at Mr. Hiltabidel□s when I was married to Harrison Hartzell. I am told that I was married to him in 1884; I do not know the year, but my boy, Charlie was a good sized boy when I was married to Hartzell.

I do not remember what was in any papers I signed for a pension. If I gave my age as more than 64 years at that time, I believe I must have been mistaken. When my husband died they talked of taking me to the County Infirmary, but my son Charles took me to live with him. I have lived with him since that time. He is married, has a large family and is poor. He resides at 73 Rosa Street, Tiffin, Ohio.

□Note: -- This affidavit is intended to meet as far as possible the requirement of a letter to Hon. A. W. Overmyer from the Pension Department, dated Jan. 28, 1919, which asked for the Claimant to give her residence in the summer of 1870 and 1880. The above embodies the facts as well as I could get them from the Claimant after a long and tedious conversation with her.

Morgan,

Here's another for your list. You may already have this iformation. I don't think this is from my direct line. I having Road Runner installed today. Now I'll have cable access instead of modem to the internet. Just think how fast I'll be able to send you more pieces of the puzzle.

PS You are my inspiration.

Maybe after tax season is over and my son moves into his new (a fixer upper) house I'll have time to spend at the library.

Take care,

Sandie

Mr Iler,

I came across two obits in the Columbus Dispatch (www.dispatch.com).

22158 - LY0533

One for 9 April 2000 is for Clayton Eugene Oiler, 88 years old, died 5 April 2000 at McAllen, Texas. He is to be buried in the Lithopolis cemetery in Ohio. Wife Dorothy Jean Hummell, three sons, one daughter, 9 grandchildren, and 17 great grandchildren. He lived at Hebron, Ohio. His ancestors came to Ohio from Pennsylvania before the Civil War. If memory serves me correctly, his farm was once the site of the national corn husking championships.

23616

An obit for 28 March 2000 is for Leslie Murphy, daughter of Phyllis Ann Murphey and Dr. Bob Murphy, who apparently married Rev Thomas Oyler of Johnson City, Tennessee, with children Richie, Robbie, and Amanda Oyler. Maybe you should double-check this one because my notes sound confused. 23616-5

Best wishes,
James M Johnson

Dear Morgan,

As I can see from your last E-mail, there may be some connection between us through the Snively line therefore I shall try to establish a connection with all that I know. As closely as I can determine from the notes I have from my Aunt Kay, (Katherine Eyler Kurtz) I am a direct decedent of Conrad Schnebley (also spelled Snively, Snavley, Snavle and Snavaley), who immigrate to this country from Switzerland some time after his birth in 1716. There is no known record or rather none that I can locate, as to his home in Switzerland. Conrad married Elizabeth Black who was born in 1735 and died in 1802. I would place his immigration between 1716 and 1735. Both Conrad and Elizabeth are buried in Mt. Hebron Cemetery near Keedysville, Md. I am enclosing herewith a copy of Conrad's translated will taken from the Washington County Maryland records found in Liber B- Folio 50. 72

In the Will, Conrad lists several bequests to his children and I shall note his children as I have been able to determine them from this and other documents.

		Born	Died
	John Snavaley	Aug. 10, 1759	Dec. 17, 1819

	Adam Snavaley Henry	June 9, 1769	Oct. 6, 1846 (Executor)
	Jacob H. Snavaley aka Henry Snavaley ?	July 4, 1775	Jan. 1813 age 88	1863? 38?

	Elizabeth Snavaley m. John Elard on Sept. 10, 1801	1782	1850

There is also a Barbara Snavaley mentioned in the Will and she married one John Snyder of Jefferson Co. W. Va. In the Will Barbara is named as a Grand Daughter but there is no mention who her father is or anything further.

In another note, Aunt Kay names several others but makes no mention of who they are or how they are related. They are

	Born	Died
Catherine Snively	July 4, 1775	Aug. 6, 1847

My Aunt Kay was in contact with one S. Webster Piper of 133 E. Antietam St. Hagerstown, Md. who wrote on 4/25/57 concerning my ancestor Casper (Schnebley) Snevely born 9/20/1760 and died 10/18/1839 and who's Will is recorded in Liber D - folio 334 of the Washington County Md. Records, the son of Conrad. He, Piper had had occasion to see an old family bible in the possession of a Mrs. Adaline Roach who at the time was age 85, and who was a direct descendant of Jacob C. Snively, and who lived in Boonsboro Md. This Bible contained a hand painted marriage certificate for Jacob C.,the son of Casper and Mary Ann Schnable, and Sussannah Wyand, daughter of Christian and Amelia Weyand. Piper states that the family name was variously spelled on the certificate as Snable, Schnable, and Snavela. He also indicates that Jacob C.'s Will may be found in Liber E-folio 638 of Washington County Md. Records. Further he had seen this Will and stated that Jacob signed his name as Snavala. Additionally Mr. Piper notes that in Williams History of Washington County, Md. published in 1908 by Williams there is mention on page 754 if Conrad Schnebley and the names of his son, Casper, and Jacob son of Casper. I am attempting to locate a copy of this book through relatives in Hagerstown Md. Piper's closing line to my Aunt was , "I was waiting for Adaline Roach to die and then I might be able to get the marriage certificate or at least a photo copy of it." Apparently Mrs. Roach was not willing to let the document out of her hands.

Perhaps this will be of some assistance to you in establishing a connection between us in this area. I hope so. I hope to get there this summer to continue my research. Hope to hear from you in the near future.

Very truly yours,

Gordon

WAshington County to wit.--

September 15th, 1804 came Adam Snavely and made oath on the Holy Evangels of Almight God that the annexed instrument of writing is the true and whole will of Conrad Snavely late of said County, deceased, that has come to his hands on possession and that he doth not know of any other. At the same time came John Shewey one of the three subscribing witnesses to the annexed last Will and Testament of Conrad Snavaly and made oath etc. that he did see the Testator herein named sign and seal this will that he heard him publish pronounce and declare the same to be his last Will and Testament that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of his apprehension of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding and that he subscribed his name to this will in the presence and at the request of the Testator, and that he saw Joseph Dener and Jonas Hogmire do the same.

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN

b. ca 1730-40

I, Conrad Snavaley of Washington County and State of Maryland, being well stricken in years and getting frail in body but of good sound understanding and memory thanks be to God for the same - knowing that it is appointed for all flesh to yield unto death, I do hereby these presents constitute and ordain this my last Will and Testament and none other--

First, I recommend my soul to Almighty God who gave it and hoping though the merits of Jesus Christ to Inherit the Kingdom of Heaven prepared for his Elect and Chosen,--and now for settling my Temporal Estate and such goods and Chattles as it hath pleased God, to bless me with, I settle in the following manner--

First, I Will and Order that all those just debts I owe in right and contain to any personal shall be paid in a convenient time after my decease--

Second, I have conveyed and made over to my Son Casper Snavaley his heirs and assigns eighty-two acres of land, part of the "Resurvey on Fellfoot Enlarged" as may appear by the deed thereof in which land he has his full legacy except what may fall to him by this my last Will and Testament hereafter named-- 51571

I have also conveyed to my Son Adam Snavaley his heirs and assigns one hundred and seventy nine acres of land part of said "Fellfoot Enlarged" as may appear by the deed thereof in which I have allowed him to full legacy except what may fall to him by this my last Will and Testament hereafter named--

I have also conveyed and made over to my Son Jacob Snavaley his heirs and assigns forever part of the aforesaid land called the "Resurvey on Fellfoot Enlarged", containing about eighty-two acres of land more or less as may appear by the deed thereof in which land I have allowed him his full legacy except what may fall to him by this my last Will and Testament hereafter named--

I Will and Bequeath unto my Son Henry Snavaley and his heirs or assigns the sum of three hundred pounds current money including whatever sum of money I have already paid him or what may appear in my books against him.--

I Will and Bequeath unto my Son John Snavaley his heirs and assigns for ever the sum of three hundred pounds current money, including whatever sum or sums of money I have already paid him or what may appear in my books against him.--

I Will and Bequeath unto my Daughter Catherine the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds current money including what I have already paid her or whatever sum of money may appear in my books against her.--

I Give and Bequeath unto my Granddaughter Barbara the sum of two hundred pounds current money including whatever sum or sums of money I have in my books against her.-- My Daughter Barbara the mother of my Grand-daughter the aforesaid sum of money not to be paid her until she arrives to the age of twenty-one years - Except my Executors shall think it right to pay her sooner, that shall be left in their judgment and discretion, but she shall not have it in her power to draw said money before she arrives to the age of twenty-one years, but if she sould die without lawful issue begotton of her body that in that case the aforesaid sum of money so willed her shall fall to my children that then may be alive to be equally divided among them all.--

I Give and Bequeath unto my Daughter Susannah her heirs and assigns forever the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds current money including whatever sum or sums of money I have against her in my books.

I Will and Bequeath unto my Daughter Elizabeth her heirs and assigns forever the sum of two hundred fifty pounds current money including whatever sum or sums of money I may have in my books against her.--

I Will and Order that the whole of my children shall draw and equal part out of my Estate as it may be collected until each one has drawn what is above mentioned and willed to them--and after all the above legacies are fully and completely paid off whatever amount of the Estate may be remaining shall be equally divided among those of my children which are alive my Grand-daughter Elizabeth excluded not to draw any part of said Estate (if any there be.)

I Will and Order the same shall be carried into Execution, that if any of my children shall be dissatisfied with this my distribution made among them and will be contentions and go to Law with the rest of my children without a Lawful reason respecting this my distribution, shall only draw five pounds and be wholely and solely debarred from drawing one shilling more, although I have willed to them certain legacies they shall be utterly null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever--but if there does not arise any such contentions child among them, then all things herein before shall be strictly complied with agreeable as I have distributed my Estate among them.

I hereby nominate and appoint my trusty friend and son Adam Snavaley--whole and sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament impowering them to adt in all things as may be required by Law to settle and carry this my last Will and Testament into Execution.

In Witness where unto I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal as my last Will and Testament in the presents of the subscribing witnesses this twelfth day FEB 12, 1803 of February in the year of Our Lord, Eighteen hundred and three, signed, sealed and published as my last Will and Testament in the presents of us--

Hi Barb,

This is great that we live so close! What part of Grove City do you live in? I live off of Gantz Road in the Willow Creek area.

19869 19870

I was going through some of my Iler papers and found where William and Rebecca had the following children:

Nell; Charles; Daisy; Minnie; Edward; Jeanne; Maggie; and Muriel.

Maggie is my great-grandmother. She married Russell Hudson. Do you have anything on any Hudson's?

I remember Aunt Muriel vaguely. I was probably about 4 or 5 and she lived on Ohio Ave. She was probably in her 90's and she would keep a box full of toys behind her couch. When we would go over to her house she would get down in the floor and play. She died in 1981

I have some pictures, I can scan and e-mail to you of the Iler's that I have. I have a picture of William and Rebecca. Do you happen to know where William is buried? Rebecca is in Greenlawn Cemetery, but its for a single grave and William is not there.

I am interested in those marriage certificates, so here's my e-mail address:

I am looking for any information on Gracey Ann Iler and her husband, Jesse Phillips. They were married in Bulloch County, Georgia in 1855. She supposedly died walking from Savannah during the Civil War. He lived in the house of her parents or her sister before they were married. I would like to find his parents, also and the reason he was in different homes.

Nicholas ILER of Lincoln Co. NC d. 1817

Posted by: Betty Vaughn

Date: March 24, 2000 at 13:36:34

I am looking for information on the family of Nicholas ILER of Lincoln Co. NC. I find him on jury duty in Lincoln Co from 1804. until 1815. His will leaves estate to his wife Sarah and Nicholas Iler Tucker, Sophia Tucker, John M Tucker, Eliza Tucker and a Grizilla Bartly. it is believed that Nicholas and his wife raised the Tucker children. In his will, he leaves to Nicholas Iler Tucker "the Stafford Place so called, for Sophia".(We believe Sophia to be about 12 yrs old at this time.) To John M Tucker he left "the Money coming to me in Pennsylvania from the estate of John Wilson, dec,d". Was Nicholas Iler from PA??
Sometimes the earlier court documents call him Nicholas Oyler (Oiler)
In Lincoln County in earlier years I also found reference to:
1778 - Melcher Oyler
1794 Francis Oiler
1800 John Oyler.
Any help would be appreciated.

Hi Morgan,

Long time no hear...

Sorry I haven't been communicating as much lately - I've been doing some more work on my mother's side of the family (ANTAL) lately, and with springtime, yardwork gets in the way. Yeah, and Alcoa wants me to do their stuff too! So, I don't get as much time to "play" with family tree stuff as I'd like to.

Unrelated to the ILER-EYLER-EILER clan, but perhaps you'll find this interesting: Poppy and I took a trip to Elmira, NY back in March and met my mother's father's first cousins (two sisters and a brother). They had original photographs dating back to around 1888 of my gg-grandparents and family. What a great find! I took my (Alcoa's) laptop and my scanner and got copies. They also were able to fill in a great deal of information of the ANTAL clan - more than tripled what info I had!

BTW, I've been using an online service provided by ofoto.com to generate actual photographs (real developed photos, not inkjet prints) from digital images. I've been very impressed by the quality of the pictures. (shutterfly.com is a competitor - haven't used their services)

Now, to the subject line... an obit from yesterday's Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

Morgan

Thank you for your prompt reply.

S, 575

The only other information I have is that John Wagner ILER was born between 1833 and 1835, travelled to Australia in the 1860s during the Victoria gold rush where he met and married Catherine Anne DALTON. They had three children, George Jackson, Alonzo,John Henry, Arthur and Elizabeth Anne ILER. They married according to Baptist rites in Victoria in 1865.

This is perhaps unusual because we have always assumed that Catherine Anne Daltons parents, (DALTON and CUMMINS) were Irish immigrants or convicts and more likely to be Catholics than Baptists and J.W.ILER, if he derived from Swiss/German/Austrian stock was probably Catholic or Lutheran.

An explanation here could be that George Jackson ILER was born 12 months before they married and the Catholic Church may have refused to marry them. That is what occurred to my wife's Irish Catholic forebears who unwisely had 7 children before they married (ultimately as Presbyterians but both were buried as Roman Catholics)

EAE

I did find a site on the internet that identified John Wagner ILER as the son of John and Ann (NAGLE) but I haven't been able to find it again (Yes, I should have bookmarked it!) It seems, however, that Wagner was a common middle name.

Oral family history (almost always inaccurate) assured us that we had a Dutch link in the family-this was the Ilers. Probably a Dutch grandmother was more acceptable than German to my mother who had some odd views on foreigners.

I intend to get to the bottom of this family branch.

Subject: Eiler clarification

Morgan,

I hope you are having a fine day.

I've been comparing notes that you sent with notes I had about my line, specifically my gr. gr. grandfather Daniel Eiler. I saw where you circled the three listings for Daniel Eiler's of Schuylkill County, and I see where some of the dates and spouses names seem to be double listed.

There may be more than two Daniel Eiler's, but I think this information can be merged. Example: Daniel Eiler the carpenter in 1850 Census was 36 and married to a Rebecca. His birthdate around 1813-1814. His father Adam Eiler. An IGI Record lists his christening April 19, 1813. 32713 – UF02 32706

My line's Daniel Eiler, the farmer born 1811 and died 1869, last married to Elizabeth (Wenrich) Eiler. An IGI Record lists their marriage about 1847. His death recorded in Pa. 1870 mortality index. His father of course Johannes Eyler (Eiler). 48783 48805

And we are not the only ones to conclude possibility of these Daniel's being cousins. It seems to reason Johannes Eyler and Adam Eiler (32706),were the brothers mentioned as children to Michael Eyler, Bern township, Berks County. 35424 [illegible]

In trying to find more of Michael, I've discovered a listing for Adam Eyler (fourth class)revolutuion war 1777-1778 third Battalion, Berks County, Pa under Capt. Emrick's Company...
Adam Eiler 1752 Berks County list of taxables...Bern Township.

When you have a chance, Can you see if you have anything else about an Adam Eyler(Eiler) in this time frame. There seems like a chance this might be another connection to my Eiler's !
Thanks, BRUCE.

Subject: more info

Morgan,

As promised here's the facts from the papers about Daniel Eyler, late of Berks County, Pa., who died intestate.

All of these Eyler's resided in Reading, Berks Co., Pa.

Daniel Eyler died sometime before 3 Feb. 1864 when his father (Christian Eyler) petitioned the court on behalf of 2 minor children left without a legal guardian (John Ephraim Eyler & Ellen Catharine Eyler).

William Eyler (relation to others unknoewn) appointed guardian to the 2 minor children until they became 21 years old.

John (8 May 1875, papers signed)

Ellen (20 June 1873 , papers signed)

Also, their deceased grandmother (Mary Phillips) is mentioned. She was still alive in Feb 1869, as dates & expenses to the guardian William Eyler were listed on the papers for Ellen Eyler.

Additionally, two females were listed with dates & expense on John E. Eyler's release of guardianship papers; for clothing for MARY EYLER (July 1864 thru June 1867) and EMMA EYLER, clothing & boarding April 1875. Also, Emma Eyler is listed boarding costs on Ellen's papers in 1872 & 1873.

Also noted on guardianship papers as money received by William Eyler for a U.S. government pension (noted as being split by half)...

Morgan,

Thanks so much for the prompt reply.

Am curious how you handle files when for example you can merge people when the famillies are the exact same like my Johannes Eyler. I'm wondering can you ever delete file numbers, or do keep the multiple file numbers. I confidently add Johannes' (EY0) wife also as Elizabeth. I have another document other than the WILL for Johannes that names Elizabeth, and she outlived her husband.

Her tombstone design matches Johannes, but am told its very worn. I wonder if there's anything that will "bring out" worn dates on stone, that won't harm the appearance.

I'm looking at the FGS you sent for Adam Eiler (32706) & family. I'm interested if you have copy or know where I can find the source 1859 TAX LISTING for Daniel Eiler (32713). The footnote lists his occupation farmer, and could that be my Daniel Eiler the farmer and does it list town or county for the tax listing? I'm sure I mentioned that my line Daniel Eiler was first married to ELIZABETH GRUBER and their two children Charles Eiler & Fietta Eiler Miller (Issac miller her husband). CHARLES EILER served in Civil War 50th regiment Pa. volunteers.

All for now, and many thanks for sharing histories once again. I plan my next mailing to you by postal carrier, including copies I mentioned before.

Mrs. Geerling:

Mr. Redman knows that I have done some research on Solomon Bishop who married Caty Iler. I haven't done much on the Ilers. Mrs. L.D. Prewitt told me about the deed of gift in WASHINGTON CO, VA. WILL BOOK 2, p.178-9 in which Jacob Iler gives land to his sons Daniel and John and his daughter Caty Bishop, wife of Solomon. It was signed Aug. 21, 1798.

Solomon came to Nelson county, Ky. about 1800.

The 1810 Kentucky census in bookform gives only these two ILERs-Daniel Iler -Ohio county (bk. pg.1661) 2 white males under 10, 3 white males, 10-16, 1 w.m. 26-45..." and John Iler- Garrard co., bk.pg. 744- no white males under 10, 0 white males 10-16; 4 w.m. 16-25, 1 2.m. 26-45..." Daniel seems the likely candidate.

Solomon had both a son Daniel and a son John, no Stephen.

In your May 2000, Newsletter, you have listed: 22043 Daisy Edna DURBIN LX0488 and 23091 Iho Almira J DURBIN and 22009 Almira Jane NORTON LXO48+.

I can tell you who both of these women are. 22043 Daisy Edna DURBIN LXO488* was the first wife of my father's twin brother, Samuel Owen OYLER. She was born 7 December 1898 and married my uncle, Samuel Owen OYLER, on 30 June 1915. She died 20 October 1939.
I believe that 23091 "Iho" Almira J DURBIN AND 22009 Almira Jane NORTON is the same person. Almira Jane NORTON married Richard DURBIN and they were the parents of Daisy Edna DURBIN. Also my widowed grandfather, John Sweetwood OYLER married
Almira Jane DURBIN after she was widowed.
Thus you can see how both mother and daughter married into the OYLER Family.

Subject: MISC: Shane Interview with Mrs. Wilson, Woodford Co

John D. Shane's Interview, In 1841, With Mrs. Wilson Of Woodford County Also A List Of Shane Interviews Published In The Filson Club History Quarterly

By Otto A. Rothert
Louisville, Kentucky

Source:The Filson Club historical Journal, Vol. 16, 1941-42, pp. 227-235

During the past fourteen years The Filson Club History Quarterly has published, in full, the notes of one of the many interviews Rev. John D. Shane had with some of the Kentucky pioneers and their sons and daughters. Most of his interviews took place in central Kentucky from about 1838 to shortly before his death in 1864.

Shane's original notes of his interview with Mrs. Wilson are in the State Historical Society of Wisconsin, Madison. In the Calendar of The Kentucky Papers of the Draper Collection of Manuscripts (1925) it is calendared, on page 259, as an Interview with Mrs. Wilson, of Woodford County, February 26, 1841. Shane does not give her Christian name, nor does Mrs. Wilson, for she simply states she was a daughter of pioneer Patrick Mahon. see 46085

This interview was selected somewhat at random for publication. No changes have been made other than by spelling out abbreviated words and by adding, in brackets, a few attempted elucidations. Like most of Shane's other interviews it bears on subjects on which he has also made notes elsewhere. These various interview notes when combined offer much new material for detailed pioneer history sketches on their respective topics. Among other notes bearing on the subjects brought out in the following transcription is Shane's interview with Mr. and Mrs. James [Jane B. Mahon] Brackenridge, of Bourbon County, the brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. Wilson. The interview here transcribed, like the original in the Draper Collection of Manuscripts, is numbered 11 CC 276-279:

Mrs. Wilson: In her 87th year, 26th February 1841. (1754 born.) Mrs. Wilson came in, in the year 1780.

We came from within about 18 miles of Bottetourt Court House. In Bourbon County, went first to Riddle's [or Ruddle's] Station, afterwards to Martin's Station, where we [at Ruddle's and Martin's stations] were taken [June 22, 1870] by Captain Bird [Colonel Henry Byrd]. The Indians took Riddle's Station [June 22, 1780]. Had the fever just before we were taken, and were just getting out of it. X

Patrick Mahon, her father, started in October 1779, and did not get out till after New Year. Bad weather. Had 20 packed creatures, besides what he rode. Were very much afraid we would be attacked, but were not. It was very scary times.

Riddle's Station [Ruddle's, afterwards called Hinkston's]: Next spring we were taken. Were in Riddle's Station when it was attacked in March [June] 1780. 1 was lying very sick with the fever at the time, and had a sister so deaf she could not hear a gun. Our family were all very low. The men went out to see what Indian sign they could see. There was one end that was open. The men that were left went to fixing up the breach. Mrs. Riddle joined them with her gun. They didn't happen to come to that open end, or they might have made bad work of it.

Patrick Mahon: Mrs. Wilson's father's name was Patrick Mahon. He had lived a good while in Bottetourt. He came out of Pennsylvania into Virginia, Lancaster County. Don't know the preacher Mahon [William Mahan] to be a kin. Of my connection lived about Lexington, some preachers that I know of. My father was taken at the same time we were-and carried to Detroit. (Taken prisoner.) He died there, 2 weeks after he got there. All had sickness-the fever. He travelled 2 days, with his 2 sons holding him under the arms, & helping him along. He begged us to leave him at several of the Indian towns, but we feared if we left him there the Indians would kill him. We were satisfied when we got him there.

Three brothers, John, Thomas, and William [Mahon] taken at the same time, and a brother-in-law, James Morrow, and his wife my sister, and 3 single sisters, Isabella, Margaret, and Jane [Mahon, later Mrs. Jane B. Brackenridge]. I was then single, afterwards married Mr. Wilson. We were very lucky, all to be kept together.

Byrd's Treatment: As we were traveling in, Captain Byrd [Henry Bird] was very ungenerous to us. He measured out to the men only a cup of flour, and the women and children only a half cup. Nor would they allow back rations. They travelled by water, or when by land, had to walk. They were longer on the road, and missed a day's rations. Mahon, the brother, said "Captain Byrd, I suppose we may expect back rations today." Byrd replied-no such indulgence would be given prisoners.

Booty Takin: Saw an Indian riding a saddle I had, and one of my father's horses. Said "good Kentuck for me." There were 3 Indians on the horse. Another fine mare my father had, they had to crist-shoot here, before they could catch her. The Indians asked my brother whose horse that was. My brother replied it was his. The Indian said it was a lie, for it was his.

900 Indians around them [at Ruddle's Station]. Riddle thought they could have defended the place by force of arms, but they couldn't.

Agreement: Byrd and John Mahon had an agreement how much land they should have, and how they should live when they went in. But he let it be carelessly seen that he put it into his coat-pocket, and they stole it out-so that it was never of any more use to him.

Ruddle: Riddle got an island, and 16 milk cows. He made a great deal of money there.

Prisoners: We were taken into an island, and the men were either to go to prison or to work. Captain Grant was building a mill. They got a York shilling a day. Made them haul rock themselves, just as horses did. All but my oldest brother. They finally broke off, and thought they would rather be in jail than to do such work. One Mr. Jones, a very favorable commissary, a mighty good man, persuaded them to send a petition to Major Halderman [Haldimand]. John Mahon, Captain Jones wouldn't have (left?) kept in provost, wouldn't let go to jail?was weak and sickly. Captain Jones took his provisions to him every day himself. The prisoners never had had a house hired for them before. They rented a very good house for us. Gave a half a Joe a month for it. Captain Law furnished the prisoners with clothing. An officer by, offering him an old coat, he refused. Said it wasn't the right color. Here, Daniel, said he, take Mahon to jail. He called Daniel-several times-but never intended to send him. Pinched an old man's ears.

At Montreal: Always, after we went to Montreal, we had a very good house to stay in. After we were taken first, they wanted us first, the single ladies, to go into the gentlemen's kitchen and cook for them. We single ladies and Captain Duncan's lady, and Mrs. Lapost, and Mrs. Mahon, my mother, and Mrs. Agness Mahon, my brother's wife, sent a petition to Major Halderman [Haldimand], telling him we had never been accustomed to work in the kitchen, and we wanted houses to live in. We considered it was too low, we never had been used to such business. General Haldimand granted the petition. The second petition also, to let our men be out with us, and if that couldn't be, to let us have someone to wait upon us. They made them give oath that they wouldn't leave, and set them on patrol.

John Duncan: After John Duncan and other prisoners escaped, all who were left, except my oldest brother, were put into prison.

The Women: The women of us were generally pretty good at our needles, and we had generally pretty good employment at that. Got $1.50 for every fine ruffle shirt we made. They were in the habit of putting lace edging on their ruffles. She worked an open edge on them, and they took a great fancy to that, and we charged them another $1.50 for that-making $3. Our needles were very well capable of supporting us decently. When we came to leave, we had 7 pieces of irish linen in the house, that we had to return. The people that we sewed for, were mighty sorry. They always advanced the money, or were ready to pay when we brought the work.

A loyalist lady came to the prisoner's house to get washing. Miss Judy Lapost and her brother were just going to town. They said they were just going to town to get a washerwoman. One day their mother was in a store in town and a town lady came and wanted to know if she wasn't one of the Virginia prisoners. Said the report was through the town that the Virginia prisoners were the proudest people in town. She said?why shouldn't we be? We had all good homes, and always had plenty, &c. Mother told some of the Britishers-Yes! they had to wash, and their husbands to enlist. Mahon used to go by their doors, just to make them mad.

Williams Journal: William [Mahon] kept the Journal. Used to have a great deal of amusement every night. Wherever we would stop, he would read it to them. They would hardly let him go, they were so taken with him. He had but one brother, Thomas, that it was convenient to be left with when he died. And I don't know whether he left it with any of them, or not. His widow and family are now in Missouri, or perhaps they could tell something about or of it. I don't doubt but his brother took care of the Journal, and it may be now that some of the family has it, but then they are away in another country from us now.

William died at Wilson's Station [Mercer County] about a year after we came back from Montreal. Was but a youth, about 18 years old, when he died. Thomas was living at the same place where William died.

Mahon and Byrd: Mahon then abused him. Byrd said he would pierce him through, and drew his sword. He abused him very much.

Bobee: Mr. Bobee (Banbee) [Duperon Baby], a frenchman.

Major Dupaster: [Arnet S. Deyster?] (was a great friend to prisoners. Perished in the ship that went back after carrying us to Quebec.) Had no want of food after we got to Montreal.

Capt. Hare was very kind. Would stay behind out of Byrd's sight, to give Mahon, the old man, an opportunity of riding-to ride-his horse.

Byrd and the hornet's nest.

Captain Riddle used to get the prisoners.

The Indians burned his youngest child-little child. Whose?

James Morrow. Brother-in-law, James Morrow, was taken the next day after we were, by the Indians. (We by the whites.) They met a white woman who asked Morrow some questions about when he was taken, and he provoked her by rough answers, and she said he must be burned. [Alexander] McKee sent a belt of wampum, which alone saved his life that he must be set free. They had sticks sharpened, ready to stick into him, and a fire kindled.

Ravenscraft: Indians caught Lieutenant Ravenscraft. They made him run the gauntlet, and nearly killed him. Mr. Kinney said-if this is a man, a man's a strange looking thing. He gave Ravenscraft, however, a coat and pantaloons. Brightened their guns.

Riddle Betrayed Ravenscraft: Had 900 guineas gotten from the Indians, in that way, when he left Montreal.

Washington: Visited Washington and got money of him. Had gotten a wagon, and gone on. Washington gave brother and Ravenscraft one-half joe a piece; was very sorry about Riddle.

John Duncan: The first person we saw when we got back to Philadelphia, was John Duncan-driving a wagon-or we might have hunted the city over for him and not found him.

Hi!
I just found a 1984 obituary for Clyde Iler, Sr. (brother to my great-uncle, Walter Iler) Here's some info from it I don't think you have. His middle initial is E. He died Jan 27th, 1984. He had 12 great-grandchildren at that time. (no names listed though). Two of his daughters had remarried (divorced or widowed I don't know, no children from either marraige though. Patsy had married Wm. Jones and Martha had married Richard Gould. I don't know if they're still married to these men or not. 51589 Thought this may be of some use. :) Hope you're doing well!

Hello,
I have been referred to you by; a lady from Arizona. Same name but not same persons. in the lineage.
The lady in particular that I am looking for was a Maria Oyler who married a Peter Keckler in Adams County, Pennsylvania. They lived there in the mid to late 1700s. and possibly the very early 1800s .
I would appreciate it if you could forward any leads, please.
Thanks in advance for your attention to this message.

Hello,
Morgan, Well I guess we are cousins and neighbors and cousins. I live in Colorado, I have been driving through Omaha for years, never knowing you were there.

I have only recently come accross data cluing me in as to my Oyler lineage, so I certainly would appreciate any data. That came my way.
If our roots are in Pennsylvania, how did you end up in Omaha?
My family migrated on to Iowa, then Colorado. (Of course in my life time I have been temporarily uprooted to many times, to New York State, Louisiana, Minnesota and finally home again in Colorado.
I am a Mother of three sons and three daughters, with seventeen Grandchildren. So I am making a great effort to interest them in family history and how it fit into American and World history.
Most of my career paths have been people oriented, what are yours?

51597-8

It appears the love of travel must be genetic. I envy your opportunity for your motor trips this summer. It is so much fun, seeing new things , new places, new people and gaining new experiences. Now is the time to make the memories to reminisce about , when we cant gad about, huh?
WEll I better ring off now.
Happy and safe traveling!
Best regards,
Julia Worthing Magee

Subject: GEORGE G. OYLER

Morgan,

Hello, Sure do hope all is well with you and that you are on the road for your trip. I wanted to send this, after looking it over, if you want me to hang onto it until you get home, I will. Just let me know.

I ran across this on one of my mail lists that I belong to. There is a lot of information on a few names in our Oyler/Oiler Family File. Thought I would send what is listed for George G. Oyler. There are two articles on him. Also, after the information about above, I pasted the entire article.

Hope we find some link. I believe I have more info on this George. I believe he is one of the Family tree maker files that I sent to you, not my file, one of the other ones. I will be checking and will keep you up dated.

Write when you can, Take Care.Be Well.

Sincerely, Brenda Oiler Heaton

to his farm. A Democrat, he has held the office of trustee in the township. He ranks high, too, as a Mason. He married Elizabeth GERRARD, of Ohio, in 1838. She had one child, Sarah, who died while an infant. The mother also died in 1876. He then married Honor J. MINOR..

THIS IS FURTHER ON INTO THE SAME POST:

In the years 1856-7 a large brick edifice was put up near Harrison for the purposes of a private academy, called the institute. The expense of its erection and equipment was borne mainly by Mr. George OYLER, whose son, G. W. OYLER, then a recent graduate of the Farmers' college, at College Hill, was its first principal, and has since become a well-known teacher in the county.

HERE IS THIS POST IN IT'S ENTIRETY, THE ABOVE IS LISTED IN THIS POST:

John BROWN was born in South Carolina, in 1803, and came to Ohio with his parents. He has been a farmer all his life, and for many years was a member of the Harrison school board. In politics he is a Democrat. He married Sarah HERIN, of New Jersey, in 1824. August 30, 1874, he died at the age of 1871. He was the father of seven children: Jane, now the wife of James CHARELTON, of Butler county, Ohio; John, married to Sarah ELLIS and living in Indiana; Martha and Rebecca, both living in Hamilton county; Sarah, wife of Jehu JOHN, and now living in Illinois; Hannah, married to John VANAUSDALL, and now in Hamilton county; and Jefferson, remaining in the same place.

Frederick BIDDINGER, senior, was a native of Fayette county, Pennsylvania. He was born in 1804, and came to Ohio with his father and settled in Butler county. After a year they moved to this county, and in 1810 he began on the farm which he now occupies. At present he is in possession of a fine competency. A Democrat in politics, he held the office of trustee of Harrison township one year; has always taken a deep interest in public improvements, and was instrumental in the laying out of the Biddinger pike, running from Harrison to Oxford. He is a member of the English Lutheran church; has held the office of trustee in the church for many years, and has always been deeply interested in the subject of education of youth. He married Sarah BLACK, of Ohio, who died in 1873. The children are John W., married to Margaret OTTO and now living in Butler county, Ohio; George A., married to Catharine SIMONSON, and now in this county; Emeline, wife of John LIVINGSTON, now in the same county; Jacob, married to Sarah STEPHENS, also living in this county; Angeline, now the wife of William HUTCHINSON, and residing in Missouri; Catharine, in this county; Melinda, Mrs. Thomas THOMAS of the same county; Martha, the wife of Martis HOLOWELL, and now residing in Indiana; Wesley M., married to Fanny McINTYRE, and now in Illinois; and Lewis F., of this county.

Asa R. MITTLER born in Dearborn county, Indiana, in 1817, is a farmer of Hamilton county, where he settled in 1848. The first few years he was a resident of Harrison township, and while there he dealt in stock. In 1852 he organized a company and went over the plains to California where he was engaged for a year in mining and keeping hotel, and returned to Ohio by way of Panama. At the end of two years he purchased a farm in Whitewater township, on which he lived until 1870, when he moved to the place on which is now his home. While in Whitewater township he held the office of township trustee and treasurer for a number of years, and has filled the same office in the township where he now resides. He has always been a Democrat. February 22, 1855, he was married to Euphemia RITTENHOUE of Ohio. The children are Alice, Ellen (now the wife of George ARNOLD), Charles, George, and Mabel.

John JONES, born in Baltimore county, Maryland, first settled in Harrison township in 1809. He was both a farmer and miller. In religious faith he was a Baptist, but never united with a church. His wife was Sarah HARRIMAN Their children are Betsy, Sarah, Rachel, Temperance, Ruth, Nancy, Rebecca, Stephen and Ellen.

Benjamin SIMONSON, the oldest member of the family of Aaron and Margaret SIMONSON was born in this county in 1827 In 1864 he entered into partnership with George and John PUNNY, for the manufacture of bedsteads, in which business he continued four years, when he disposed of his interest and returned to his farm. He is a member of the Sand Hill grange, in which he has twice held the place of overseer, and was also an officer in the Ancient Order of Red Men. In politics he classes himself with the Democratic party. In 1848 he married Maria JOHNSON, of Indiana. Their nine children are Margaret E., now Mrs. Harry SLEET; Nicholas J., Pricilla, Helen M., Mary E., Zaruma, Benjamin F., Maria A., and Charles G.

George HOPPING was born in Whitewater township in 1826, where he received an ordinary education, and began the business of farming. lie is a strong Republican, and always has shown much interest in education. In 1850 he was married to Rebecca IRELAND a citizen of Indiana.
He has six children William, Frank, Charles, Laura, Hattie, and Lillie.

Robert MARVIN was born September 12, 1770, in Lynne, Connecticut. He was left an orphan when three years old. When a young man he engaged in teaching. About the year 1800 he moved to Morristown, New Jersey, and soon after was married to the widow of Moses ROSS. Her maiden name was Phoebe FORD About the year 1805 he emigrated to Harrison, Hamilton county, Ohio. The journey westward as far as wheeling was made in a covered wagon, drawn by horses and oxen. The rest of the trip was effected m a flatboat down the Ohio river to Cincinnati. He settled on land obtained by his predecessor from the Government at four dollars per acre, and entered the adjoining quarter section from the Government. He and his wife were members of the Presbyterian church. lie was an Abolitionist of the old style, and so noted for his zeal that he was threatened with expulsion from the church! He died in January, 1842, in his seventy-second year. His wife survived him about ten years, expiring in the eighty-third year of her age.

Samuel R. MARVIN was born in Dover, Morris county, New Jersey, June 5, 1804. lie came to this State with his parents, and first settled on the farm now owned by Mrs. Narcissa SNOW, in Harrison township. At one time he attended the Miami university at Oxford. He devoted twenty years to teaching school. He received the rudiments of a good English education from his scholarly father, but by reason of weak eyes was never able to pursue a regular course of study.
He was a great reader, a close observer of human nature, and, in his day, succeeded well as a teacher, in which profession he spent the best part of his life. In 1842 he married Julia A. PLACE, who was born in New York in 1808. After his marriage he became a farmer, which business he followed the remainder of his life. He filled the office of township clerk for Harrison township, and was also a member of the school board, in the same township, for several years. Early in his life he was a believer in Universalism, but he afterward adopted the Swedenborgian faith. In politics he was an Old Line Whig, a strong Abolitionist, and, after the forming of the Republican party he became a Republican. A highly educated and truly good man, he was highly respected by the many with whom he was acquainted. lie died at his home near father of three children, Gustavus L., who died in infancy; Jerome P., now married to Martha A. STOKES, and Melissa A., now the wife of Henry N. CONGDEN.

Jerome P. MARVIN was born in this county in 1846. He taught school after having obtained an ordinary education, after which time he spent a year at Wabash college, Indiana, and studied medicine at the Eclectic Medical institute, of Cincinnati, five years, where he graduated in June, 1866. In 1864 he enlisted in the One Hundred and Thirty-seventh Ohio regiment of infantry, where he served three months. The practice of medicine was begun in Cincinnati in the fall of 1866, in partnership with Dr. SCUDDER, which partnership continued six years. During that time he was demonstrator of anatomy in the Eclectic institute of Cincinnati for three years. In 1872 he began medical practice in Sidney, Ohio After a year he gave up the place and came to Harrison, buying the interest of C. G. Thomas in the drug business, in which he is at present engaged. He held the office of township treasurer of Harrison township one year, was a member of the school board three years, and gave material aid in establishing the present graded system m the schools. In politics he is a Republican, and as a member of Snow Lodge No. 193 has had the place of master during three years. He was married to Martha STOKES, a native of Ohio, April 16, 1868, and is the father of two children, Mabel and Maude.

William DAIR, born in Harrison, Ohio, August 20, 1848, married Jeannette BONHAM September 21, 1870. Mr. and Mrs. DAIR have-three children, two daughters and one son. In the way of descent he is the son of James DAIR, who was one of the successful men of the county, and to whom excellent business tact and foresight have been transmitted. He is a graduate of BARTLETT's Commercial college, of Cincinnati. In the matter of positions he has filled - and filled successfully, too the township treasurer's and councilman's office, has been engaged in causes which advance the practical interests of a community, and deals in facts and results. He, with his brother Charles, is among the wealthy men of Harrison township, and year by year add by honorable means to their gains. They are distillers.

Lewis M. DAIR was born in New Jersey, Greenwich county, in 1798. He was a ship carpenter by trade, and came to Ohio in 1844 and settled in Harrison. While there he worked at the carpenter's trade. In politics he was a Democrat. His wife, Hannah MULFORD, was a native of New Jersey. She died in Harrison in 1854. Her husband survived her fourteen years. They had eleven children - Benjamin, married to Julia A. BEARD, and now living in whose first wife was Charlotte BRIGGS, and whose present wife is Louisa BRAKENRIDGE;

Indiana; James,
Mary J.; Elizabeth, the wife of Owen WILLIAMS; Amanda, the wife of Asa CURRY, now of
Indiana; Hannah, at present Mrs. Richard BOWLES; Lewis, married to Elizabeth
PERRINE
Jonathan M., married to Mary J. CAMPBELL now living in Kentucky; Lucy A., Mrs. George
LEGGET, at present a resident of Indiana; Edward, now married to Angeline
PHILLIPS and also in Indiana; and Emily, the wife of Theodore B. McCAFFERTY.

James DAIR, the second son, was born in 1822, in the State of New Jersey, where he learned the miller's trade, in which business he continued until he came to Ohio, in 1842. He settled in Harrison township, and in company with Joseph T. CLOUD built the distillery now owned by the DAIR Brothers. In politics he was a Republican. He married Charlotte BRIGGS, a native of Indiana, who died in 1864. Their children were Charles, now married to Addie
RITTENHOUSE; two daughters named Sallie; Katie, the wife of Theodore ROCKAFELLER, and now a resident of Indiana; Charlotte, married to Purlu SCOTT; Ida, now Mrs. Charles
WREN, of Butler county, Ohio; Anna, and one that died in infancy.

Isaac L. FROST was born in Harrison township, at LEE'S creek, and worked on his father's farm till he was of age, when he began mercantile business in Venice, Butler county. In 1854 he bought Mr. A.M. WAKEFIELD's stock of goods in New Haven, and continued business there until 1863, when he died. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and was a Democrat in politics. He was married to Miss Nancy HUCHINSON, who still survives him.
They had nine children - Elsie A., now married to Aaron SHAW; Amos H., whose wife is Sarah
J. HANK; Sarepta, the wife of William PHARAS; Harriet E.; John S.;
Elizabeth, now Mrs.
Jasper N. SHAW; Nancy J.; Isaac S.; and Theodocia.

Amos Hutchinson FROST was born December 18, 1840, three miles northeast of Harrison, on LEE'S creek, in Harrison township. November 12, 1867, he married Sarah Jane HAWK, daughter of William HAWK, of Crosby, who bore him three children, one son living. Early, in life the family moved to Venice, in Butler county, and resided for twelve years; from there they came to New Haven in the year 1854, and finally Amos left in 1871 and settled in Harrison village, since which time he has been engaged in the drug business. In all matters of public concern he has been favorably known. He is secretary of Harrison Loan and Business association, is a member of the school board, and treasurer and trustee of the First Presbyterian church, of which he is a member.

Dr. Milton L. THOMAS was born in Warren county, Ohio, in 1821. When eleven years old he went with his parents to Jefferson county, Indiana. At the age of twenty-one he commenced the study of medicine with Dr. J. H. D. Rogers, at Madison, Indiana, and continued the same during three years. After attending the Medical institute of Louisville, Kentucky, he began the practice of medicine in Morgan county, Indiana. In 1849 he moved to New Haven, this county, where he was in practice five years, during which time he attended a course of lectures at the Eclectic Medical institute in Cincinnati, from which institution he graduated in 1850. Four years later he opened an office in Harrison, where he is at the present time. He is an earnest member of the Methodist church, of which he is a trustee. He is also superintendent of the Sabbath-school In politics he walks with the Republican party. In 1844 he was married to Harriet W. CHASE, who was born in Ohio. She became the mother of two children, and died July 17, 1852. He then married Susan J. RYBOLT, of Indiana.
~pg 318~
They now have a family of four children: Charles S., now married to Margaret LITTLE; Eda A.; Elminea, now Mrs. James S. BITTLER; and Rolla, married to Sallie B. COOK, of Indiana.
Rolla was born in Harrison in 1857. In 1877 he graduated at Ashbury university, at Greencastle, Indiana, where he studied medicine.

Charles G. THOMAS was born in the year 1845, in Jefferson county, Indiana, whence he came to Harrison with his parents. In addition to a common school education he attended the Miami university at Oxford. For the last eighteen years he has been in the drug business. In politics he is a Republican. In 1869 he was married to Maggie A. LITTLE, of Ohio. They have two children, Harrietta and Eda L.

Joseph C. MEYER was born 1824 in Hanover, Germany, where he learned the jeweler's trade. He came to America in 1849, and first settled in Cincinnati, where he remained about four years. While there he worked as a journeyman in the jewelry business. In 1854 he came to Harrison, and entered the employ of Thomas DORR, where he remained three years, when he began business on his own account, which he still continues. During two terms he filled the position of councilman for Harrison, is a member of the Catholic church, any in politics is a Democrat. In 1860 he married Anna M. GARDINER, a native of Pennsylvania. They have two children, Lizzie and Joseph.

Rev. Charles WEST was born in 1792, in Hunterdon county, New Jersey, from which State he moved to Ohio, and settled in Colerain township in 1819. His death occurred in August, 1878, in Butler county, Ohio. By trade he was a tanner and curries, but after coming to Ohio was engaged in farming. In 1817 he united with the Methodist Episcopal church, and took an active part in its work. In 1850 he built a church with his own funds - the West Union church, at Greusbeck, in Colerain township - and was pastor of the church until his death. He was an active, earnest Christian, respected by all. In 1817 he married Rebecca SPARKS, of Baltimore, Maryland. She died at the age of sixty-eight years, in Butler county. The had nine children: Manning, now married to Amanda STOUT, and residing in Iowa; Stockston, now of Illinois, whose wives were Catharine BEYIS and Mary APPLEGATE; Pieson, whose wife is Mary GOSLING; Allison SYLVESTER, Pitman; Augustus E., married to Annie H. JOHNSON; Miranda, now Mrs. Samuel WILSON of Indiana; and Charles, married to Harriet PONDER.

Dr. Augustus E. WEST was born in 1824, in this county. After obtaining a common school education he attended school at College Hill, and at twenty-one years of age began the study of medicine with Dr. BARTLETT at Cheviot. After four years he graduated at Starling Medical college in Columbus, Ohio, and the next year began the practice of medicine at Farmersville, Montgomery county, Ohio, but soon after moved to Miamitown, where he practiced fourteen years. He then went to Illinois, purchased a farm and followed farming about a year, when he returned to Ohio and settled in Harrison. In 1865 he opened an office and began practice there and is still engaged in the same employment. He is a most successful physician of the regular school. At various times he has held various public offices of trust and responsibility. He is a member of Snow lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, also of Harrison lodge, Knights of Honor, and is a Democrat in politics. In 1849 he was married to Miss Annie TOMLINSON, of New Jersey. His eight children are: John A., now of Montgomery county, this State; Helen M., Mrs. Charles FERRIS; Rebecca, wife of William CONVERSE, and Frank, Francis, Annie C., Manning, and Eddie.

Rev. Gerberd EGGER, the Catholic priest of Harrison, Ohio, was born in Switzerland, educated at Thubingen university, Wurtemberg, and came to the United States November, 1866. He began his ministry at Dry Ridge, this county, where he preached for six years and four months, coming to Harrison in February, 1873. His first station was without the ordinary improvements which belong to places of this kind - no parsonage, no schoolhouse, in debt for the church proper, and, in fact, even the commonest grades of enterprise. He lifted a heavy church debt to a very great extent, increasing the value of church property from three thousand dollars to seven thousand dollars.

Since being at his present location he has won the admiration of those even outside of his congregation by his business tact and discipline. The old school-house and church at Harrison, which stood in a dilapidated state in 1873, now are handsome structures of brick. The church proper, with a congregation of four hundred or five hundred souls, was built in 1876; the priest's house, in 1873; and the school-house in 1877. Church property has advanced from one thousand eight hundred dollars to ten thousand dollars, and healthiness in all departments pervades. No surer sign of advancement in religious matters can be seen than that the minister is liked, the debt being liquidated, and everybody satisfied.

HARRISON VILLAGE.

This was the first town to be laid out in Hamilton county west of the Great Miami, except the early extinct Crosby, on the banks of that stream. Its recorded plat is dated December 8, 1813, and it was laid out that year by Jonas CRANE, at the southwest corner of section eighteen and the northwest of section nineteen, just half way across the present township of Harrison, on its extreme west line. A small part of it extends into Indiana. The village is described in the State Gazetteer of Ohio, in 1821, as on the Whitewater river, twenty-four miles northwest of Cincinnati, laid off on the State line, with the main north and south street on that line, and half the village on each side. The post office, we believe, has always been kept on the Ohio side, but the railway station is a little way beyond the line, in Hoosierdom.

Twenty years later, in the State Gazetteer of 1841, Harrison is noted as containing about three hundred inhabitants, with three churches, four stores, two taverns, two groceries, two physicians, three clergymen, one apothecary's shop, sixteen mechanics' shops, one flouting mill, one carding machine, and one hundred dwellings. One-third of the inhabitants then resided on the Indiana side. "The line of the Whitewater canal passes through the town, and is now in progress."

The village has had a quite satisfactory growth, considering that it has no special advantages of position; In 1830 it had but one hundred and seventy-three inhabitants. In 1850, under the stimulus of the Whitewater canal and the general growth of the country, its population had advanced to nine hundred and forty; in 1860, to one thousand three hundred and forty-three; and in 1870, to one thousand four hundred and seventeen, of course all in Hamilton county. Last year (1880) the census found one thousand five hundred and fifty in habitants within its limits, on the Ohio side.

Mr. William F. CONVERSE was the first mayor of the village. Among other mayors have been Benjamin BOOKWALTER, 1866-8; and A. E. West, 1873-4.

In the years 1856-7 a large brick edifice was put up near Harrison for the purposes of a private academy, called the institute. The expense of its erection and equipment was borne mainly by 21036 21060 Mr. George OYLER, whose son, G. W. OYLER, then a recent graduate of the Farmers' college, at College Hill, was its first principal, and has since become a well-known teacher in the county.

The St. John's Catholic church, ministered to by the Rev. Father C. EGGERS, is located here.

In 1872 the Jackson Building and Loan association, for operations at Harrison, was Organized, its certificate of incorporation being filed with the secretary of State, June 4th of that year.

The pottery operated here was started so long ago as 1829.

THE CENSUS.

The census in 1870 gave Harrison township two thousand one hundred and seventy-five people; in 1880, two thousand two hundred and seventy-seven.

Subject: New York State Ilers/Eulers

Hello Morgan,
I'm told by not a few that you have the best handle on the Ilers. Judging from your e-mail address you are probably on the south east coast. I realize there is quite a history of Ilers in that area but mine never got futher than NJ.
Valentine Iler and his wife Magdalena came through NY port about 1849 with their 6 children from Kriegsfeld, Bayern, Germany. The parents and 2 sons remained in Columbia Co. NY. One in Ulster Co, NY and one I have traced to Westchester Co. NY, the only one living in the 1900 census. The two girls married and stayed in NJ. As you see some of the family used Euler and even Euiler. I admire anyone who takes a name and compiles information on all known familes of that name as apparently you have. Thanks Bev Thivierge

I can never get over how quick responses are on this e-mail. You sure are a long way from the east coast. I have relatives there that use juno so was jumping to conclusions.
Enjoyed reading about your eventful life. I'm 10 years your junior and have only moved from Albany NY where I was born to California in 1953 with one child and my husband who went to work for UAL. Retired from the school district here in San Mateo and am a full time grandparent and a part time genealogist. Started too late. The year my mother died 1987 I findly became aware that the past can be lost forever.

> We have hit some mother lode..... much is yet unanswered but I have found Philip Iler [14551-V W] and Charlotte (P Lough?) Plough [16912-V W*] in my files. Your line is apparently the "V W" family line as known to me in my files and which in turn is seemingly linked to the "VN" line but precisely how is still another unresolved question. The VN family (line) settled in the Albany area and as is best known is descended from a John (Johannes) Iler who was married in Philadelphia about 1780. There is still some unravelling needed. I have corresponded with a number of people in these two (one?) lines and have a considerable amount of information about the family(ies).

I'm back again. Had to leave for church this AM. Philip Iler would be my great grandfather's brother. Since I knew the family by Euler it was only when I went looking in the census for Iler that I found Philip's whereabouts. Albany is not that far away but you will have to fill me in on the connection with your Johannes Iler from Philadelphia in 1780. Did I say that his two sisters seemed to have settled in NJ directly after arriving in America. Katharina married a George Smith also from Germany. I surmise that the family had some relatives there when they came but have been unable to connect the Ilers there.

Philip & Charlotte's children were: 14551–19612 VW

Hi Morgan,

My daughter Jaime had her Senior picture taken at a photo studio in Zelienople, PA (just north of Cranberry Twp). The photo studio is next to the Zelienople Cemetery. She couldn't help notice the headstone with the name "Eiler" on it....

The names are Clarence E. and Esther C. Eiler - I believe these are the same as the 30903 and 31139 from your database. They were husband and wife. Next to their graves was "Norma Jean Eiler - 1927" (their infant daughter?).

I'm glad to hear you're starting to feel a bit better. Hopefully you'll be back to 100% soon!

Also, glad to hear you received the package - sometimes UPS takes a while.....

Take care,

Jim

P.S. I've got an excuse to go to the Westmoreland County Court House on Wednesday this week (Jaime's at "band camp" nearby and she needs a ride home) so I'll get a genealogy "fix" (it's a bad habit!) by checking out some more deed transfers, wills, etc. If there's a missing puzzle piece you'd like some research on, let me know. Otherwise, I'll let you know of my findings.

Subject: iler family

My husband's grandfather Alonzo Iler (named changed legally to Don Iler) born approx. 1890's in Georgia. He had 1 brothers, 4 sisters. Sisters were Nancy, Katie? and Mary. Also maybe a cousin Katie Mac but not positive there.

19287 19288 ?

Alonzo(Don)Iler had only one son Don Iler (2/29/28-November, 1979 in New Jersey) and my husband is Don P. Iler(born in NJ in 1959).

13554

I saw a number of different Iler's from GA in the messages but they didn't quite fit in. He believes Alonzo's father was named Alfred which fits into one of the William Iler families.

Any help would be appreciated. Thank you. Phylis Iler

Birthdate: April 29, 1953
Born: Chicago, Illinois

Three sons:
Don Christopher Iler, born 1-31-85, Worcester, MA. 51701
Patrick Andrew Iler, born 1-5-88, Worcester, MA. 51702
Matthew Philip Iler,. born 11-10-95, Manchester, NH 51703

My parents:
Philip D. Tully, born 10-1-1917, Boston, Ma. Died August 95, Chicago, Illinois 51704
Beatrice T. (Lewis) Tully, born 6-24-1921, Chicago, Illinois, Died July 4, 1995, Chicago, Illinois 51705
Married September, 1950 - I have 2 sisters and 1 brother living in the Chicago area.

My husband's father is Don Iler, born 2-29-28, died in 1979 per your records. 30973
He sometimes went by Don, Jr.
His wife is Carol A.(Grenier) Iler, born 7/3/34 51682 married 5/31/year?? I will let you know, I think 1956

Don has two siblings sister, Donna Iler(Remson), also born 6/23/59 51706 brother, Timothy Iler, born 3/31/67 51707

The note on the message board "just another Iler" is from Donna. She is wrong about their grandfather being born in Germany. My husband says it was either Georgia or South Carolina.

My husband's father was an only child. His father was born in the 1890's. His name at birth was Alonzo Iler and later changed it to Don Iler. He worked for the U.S. Treasury Dept. and served in WWI. While working for the Treasury, he did sign documents as Don Iler. He was 79 when he died in 1972 or 73. We'll get you a better date there also.

30973 b.1896

Katie Iler, Mack Iler, and were 3 of Alonzo's siblings. He was one of 7 my husband thinks. My husband only met his great aunts - Katie Iler, Katie (Mack) Iler (wife of Mack) and once in the early 70's on a family cross country trip.

I'm sending a copy of the information you sent me to my mother-in-law with a copy of this note. Maybe she will help fill in the missing pieces.

Morgan,

Thanks for taking the time to help me on this. Below is everything I know about my wife's branch of the Eyler family tree. I can also tell you that most, if not all, of the 3rd generation was born at home on Daysville Rd, Walkersville - the house was near Israel's Creek. Many of them are buried at Grace Evangelical on Coppermine Rd. (Rocky Hill). Others are buried at Mt. Hope Cemetery in Woodsboro.

I found a copy of Holdcraft's "Names in Stone", published in 1999 with the 1972 updates, at Willow Bend in Westminster, MD (in case you're interested). It's going for $90. I haven't bought it yet, though, because the Walkersville Public Library (about 5 miles from Woodsboro) has a copy. After I get my information printed out so I can research multiple people I'll take a ride up there. My immediate task is to find George W.'s mother and father, which the cemetery doesn't seem to want to give up (couldn't match dates, etc. to determine if his parents are buried there). Also, if you have information on Harriet Wood's parents I'd appreciate it. There were other Wood family members in the graveyard (not sure if the same family) that were descended from the founder of Woodsboro.

Don't go to too much trouble on this. I really appreciate any information you can give me - even if only to point me in the right direction.

Subject: Iles - variations

Henry ILES was born in England about 1749. He was a Hessian soldier, captured and either released or escaped probably in 1781. He married Mary M. Stine
Cousin Scelia Widmayer has found two possibilities
Maria Margaret Stein in Berks Co. PA born June 18, 1763, to Maria Catharine and john Adam Stein or Maria Margaret Stein born Dec 26, 1`761, to Anna Catharine and Peter Stein. They died in Bennington Township, Licking County, Ohio.

His son Henry (1786-1863) founded the hamlet of Ilesboro, Washington Township, Hocking County, Ohio. He was a trustee of the New Mt. Pleasant Methodist church when it was organized and later he organized the Ilesboro-Methodist church.

We have not found any records to confirm the local history story of Henry the Hessian soldier, probably because his name was not recorded as Iles but some variation - for instance

Bill Eull wrote me >>>
I came across your note on the Hessians Soldiers list. Consider another possible spelling for Henry Iles. My name goes back to Rhineland, at least to the 17th Century. The "eu" sound, typically pronounced "oi", very quickly got anglicized by my great-grandfather who emigrated to Minnesota to be pronounced "isle". I have continued in the tradition, continuing to pronounce my name "isle" Of course, it has required a lot of explanation over the years but worth it. I wonder if your Henry ties into my Eull's.
Curious?>>>>>>>>>>

Also, Morgan B Iler <mbiler@juno.com> wrote >>>>>>>>>>>>>

I have record of many Henry Iler's with about a half-dozen being born before 1800 but none which seem to fit the Henry you are looking for. I only have listings for seven Iles' surnames and a few Stine's but none of these give any hint of being the Henry or Mary for whom you are looking.

Morgan B Iler mbiler@juno.com >>>>>>>>>>>

And there are other possibilities - anyone have a suggestion?
A fascinating but mysterious part of this story is that in the local history Henry Iles, the Hessian soldier is said to have been born in England. Is that likely. If he was born in about 1749, were there Hessian troops stationed in England at that time?

Hi Hal, remember me?
I think I told you years back who your Hessian Henry Iles really was,
I mean, you had me dig through my files to find him, and you never followed up? Hessians were not born in England, you know that, Hessians were born on the European continent, mostly in Hesse.
There were no Hessian troops stationed in England either. This guy was captured at Trenton, you remember the recent film 'The Crossing'?
and his real name was Johann Henrich Eyl, of the Knyphausen Regiment.
Cheers,
John

Actually, I posted the migration info for George Iler, who was born in Frederick county, MD and ended up in Anderson county, KS. I don't know if he and Benjamin were related in any way. but probably not, since their migration paths aren't similar.

I am not researching Ilers myself, but extracted the info about George from an old KS history book. This is the paragraph about him:

C4125 - 6957

"GEORGE W. ILER, real estate and loan agent, was born in Fredericks [sic] County, Md., February 28, 1830, and reared on a farm. At the age of nineteen years he removed to Indianapolis, Ind., and there learned the trade of house and sign painter and followed it as an occupation. He came to Leavenworth, Kan., May 14, 1857, and carried on a painting and wall paper establishment at Leavenworth until February, 1859. He went to Neosho County and with others located Osage City, which he afterward abandoned. In the latter part of March, 1859, he came to Anderson County and located at Garnett and formed a partnership with J. G. Smith and carried on a general merchandise business until the fall of 1861, when he sold out and went East for a time on account of his wife's ill health. During the war he served in the Tenth Kansas State Militia and was Captain of Company B, of that regiment from 1863 until after the Price raid. During this period his main business was dealing in live-stock. In 1866 he again engaged in general merchandise business, continuing until some time in 1869. Was then for some four years engaged in agricultural pursuits, general trading, etc. In 1873 he became associated with S. Kaufman [sic] in real estate business. In August, 1874, they purchased the Plain Dealer, and when the firm dissolved in 1878, Mr. Iler took the real estate business, which he has since continued. He is land agent for the M. K. & T. R. R. Company. He was Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Garnett at the time it was pre-empted in 1862, and held that office for several years. Was elected County Commissioner in 1879 and served two years, and has served many times in the City Council of Garnett. Mr. Iler is District Deputy Grand Master of the I. O. O. F., and has filled that position almost continuously since 1866."

If you think he might be in your line, I can get more info on him; he was quite well-known in early Anderson county days.

Subject: Iler family materials

Morgan,

I got your package last week, and I've been digesting it slowly. Thank you very much for taking the time to put that together. The newsletters were especially helpful in that they made me realize I'm leaning way to heavily on information I've culled from the internet, mostly from other amature's "research". I'm taking more care now to document the sources of my information.

Here are a few notes I jotted down while looking over your information:

- Sarah Elizabeth Eiler died 8/21/1855. Surname on her stone is Eiler, although the stone also says she's the daughter of Peter and Nancy Iler. 19672

- Mary Margaret Eiler - no mention of "Ann" on her headstone 19666

- George W. Eyler: Supposedly born in 1845. Looking at sibling's birth dates there's no way that Peter and Nancy could have had another child in 1845 (unless there were twins):
    Isaac b. January 19, 1844
    John Frederick b. 1844 - had to be November, likely December
    Susannah b. Dec. 15, 1845 - absolutely no way another child was born between John F. and Susannah

    Is George's date wrong, or is George not a child of Peter and Nancy?

I've also confirmed that George W. Eyler, Jr. had 2 sons named George. One was called "Barry" (George E.) and one called "Arie" <sp?>. I'll send you full details when I've figured this all out.

I'm trying to get in touch with someone at Grace Evangelical (St. Peter's) who can give me access to their family records. It should solve a lot of riddles.

Could you send me a gedcom file with my wife's branch of the Eylers? It would save me a tremendous amount of time entering source data. I was also curious how your genealogical software compares to Family Tree Maker - yours looks to be a much more serious program.

Thanks again,
Mike O'Brien

Morgan,

Hello. I've been looking thru microfilm Census, Schuylkill County, Pa. 1910.

Did you know of this Eyler family ?

EAJ01

121 - 121 Eyler, George Head - M - W- 35- S Proprietor, Hotel b.1875 — 51830
Eyler, John father-M- W- 76-M2 (married 46 years) b.1834 51831
Eyler, Anna mother-f- W- 64-M1 (married 46 years) b.1846 51832
Eyler, Carrie niece f- W- 7 b.1903 51834
Leiby, Frank brother-in-law -W- 26 (married 4 years) b.1884 51836
" , Elsie sister f- W-21- M (married 4 years,1 child) b.1889 51835
" , Anna neice f-W- 2 51837
Leiby, William boarder M-W- 71 — b.1839

Frackville Borough, Schuylkill, Pa.

I remember seeing a listing online for death of a George Eiler of Frackville during the time period of great flu epidemic. 1917-1918, Maybe same person?

Bruce

I draw a complete blank on this family or any individual members. I've check under both Eiler and Eyler and find no match on names or dates. None on George nor his father and mother (john and Anna). If Elsie (Eyler) Leiby was George's sister and she was born in 1889 (age 26 in 1910) her mother would have been 43 when Elsie was born. Not necessarily out of line. The father would have been 55 (my father was 66 when I was born!).

Morgan,
I forgot to list this:

The census lists George Eyler's wife Anna as mother to 7 children, and 5 children were still living in 1910.
I don't see this George Eyler listed on our chart for Schuylkill County. Do you see a match in your listings.
I have no indication they fit in my line, but they were also in Schuylkill County,Pa.!

Morgan,

One more thing about Frackville Eyler's, an Obit about Elsie (Eyler) Leiby's son :

51839

KENNETH L. LEIBY died Jan. 27, 1998 age 83 in Frackville, Pa. and was a son of the late Frank & Elsie Leiby. brother George F. Sr. died in 1967 and a sister Anna M. Tennant died in 1988.

51840

Burial at Oddfellows cemetery. Survivors are nephews Arthur Tennant & George F. Leiby, Jr.
& two nieces Wilda M. Parrish & Joan Krell !

Thank you for looking over your names for Geo. Eyler & family, Morgan.

Yes, I was fortunate that someone had the 4 Schuylkill Co. 1910 census rolls at the library, and I got thru 1 and a half microfilm rolls today. I found a number of my Pottsville relations. No big news there, able to pinpoint some ages and occupations I didn't have on some lines!! Also, I did find more about the three Charles Eilers'; Daniel's first son Charles was still alive in 1910, age 71. Of course I will add to my file and save copy for you...

My mother's maiden name is Eiler.

Her father is 30846 Charles Bert [Eiler] married 48778 Essie McClure.

His father was 28334 George Lewis [Eiler] married 46934 Estella Jane Langdon in 1887 at the Unity United Presbyterian Church In Unity (Plum Borough) PA.

Charles second wife was a Bell. 51874

I will get more information to you if there is a connection to the John Conrad Eiler who came into Philadelphia.

My mother said that they had always heard that this is where the Eiler's came into America.

I am going home to my parents for New Years and will look at a cemetery that has Eiler's dating back into the mid 1800's.

Any information will be helpful.

Thank you in advance for your time and effort.

Subject: Hi Remember me? Mary Dee

Have information from 1880 Ohio Co. Census. This is what I have finally arrived at and the numbers come out OK.

15660 15661
Thomas W. Iler and Mary Jane Autry m. 1 Sept. 1867
CHILDREN
Martha E. Iler b. 1869 11 yr old 15664
Amanda J. Iler b. 1870 10 yr old 15666
James A. Iler b. 1872 8 yr old 15668

15662 16287
Nancy (?) and (?) Stogner
CHILDREN
William A. Stogner b. 1868 12 yr old 51876 → 15663
Alonzo L. Stogner b. 1870 10 yr old 51877 → 15665

Thomas W. Iler and Nancy (?) m.23 Oct 1873
CHILDREN
Ulisses Henry (instead of G) Iler b. 1875 5 yr old 15669
Sam E. Iler b. 1877 3 yr old 15670
Sarah B. Iler b. 1879 1 yr old 15671

After this there was another child born I believe but have not found proof. I am still looking. I will keep you informed of what I find. Got a package from Kelly and she has the same information you have. Still want to find out Stogners name. I remember them living around us when we were kids. It was not the Stogner that married Nancy I am sure but there were Stogners there.

How you doing? OK I hope. Will look forward to hearing from you.

Subject: Me again! Got news

Corrections on my Dad's family. Not really that many.

Found out Darrell's middle name was Ulisses. First son.

There was no Rudey b. 1909. There was an Adrian Randolph b. 1915 d. 1942. He came after Escoe Robert.

I also ran across census from Ohio Co KY which puts Nancy Iler (Thomas') wifes last name was Martin then Stogner then Iler. This puts her as the daughter of Anderson Martin b. 10 Jan 1825 TN d. about 1915. He is buried in Martin Family Cemetery. Married 1st wife Mary "Polly" Stogner about 1846. Have not really checked out the dates yet. I'll let you know on this one. I did want to correct the ones in my Dads family though. I will do a double check on wives and let you know. OK? Sorry it took me so long.

Take it easy. Talk later. Bye for now.

Your quite welcome but I did have one thing I forgot to mention. My grandfather was Ulisses G only he was Ullisses Henry b. 1875 d. 1953. So there was no Henry H. This is from the Obit at the Library in IL. OK?

Bye again

Morgan:

I just scanned a copy of the marriages of your #18356 NY+, Searfoss, Lavina, that I got from LDS, and sent it to you. I don't know if you have this or not. I hope it comes through to you okay.

I finished making a few copies of the Homer Eiler book yesterday, and they came out real good. I put your book back together and took the liberty of taking out the duplicate page #25 for you. I'll be mailing it back to you tomorrow.

I've come across a few items I have some questions about. I think they may have been transcribed incorrectly. In a few places in the book I noticed that the dates are backwards from your data. For example, Lewis Eiler, marriage to Julia Ann Sharrock, on page 12, lists the date as Feb. 10, 1867, you have the date as 2 Oct 1867. I wonder if when you did this you changed the month and day. For example, Feb. is the 2nd month, and Oct. is the 10th month. Could I be right?

#18533 NY3* = Mary McClain, is listed in the book as Mary McLain on page 8. Is this a typing mistake?

I don't remember if I sent you this or not. #18562 NY42+ = Zora Bell Boone, born 18 Jan 1863 Shelby Co, IN, and died 19 Apr 1943.

As you can see, I have a ton of holes and I am missing a lot of proof. I know that the death date for James W is correct. The Cedar Co. News, Vol. XXIII, # 51, Dec 23, 1920 has a page one story about James and Wilemina dieing 3 hours apart. There was a paper at Wynot at the time but it closed and the morgue location is unknown to the residents of Wynot. Some tell me that the Publisher's widow gave it to a nephew, but had no further info.

If you can fill any of the holes, or supply a bit of proof, I will appreciate the help.

Thanks

Melvina Iler had a child before she married Augustus Housman (her first marriage). His name was Roy Iler and he was called by the name of his stepfather. As far as I know, Roy never dropped the Housman name even after fighting with his step father and running away at the age of 12 or 13.

Will welcome your input.

Subject: Re: Helfenbein Family

John,

I appreciated your prompt reply.

I had contact with Morgan ILER quite some time ago, and what he sent me appears to be the same info that you mentioned.

I am still concerned about what I found in the Maar microfilms that seem to be contrary to what I have seen on the Internet about the EULER/EYLER's. For example, there is no Conrad Michel EULER in the Maar records. The name I found in the baptisms of his children was always given only as Michel. The Conrad Michael seemed like a very unusual combination of given names. A Johann Michel would have been more typical of German naming customs.

I found no deaths recorded in October of 1694, but I did find Michel's death listed in 26 May 1694. I have not searched all the death records yet, so I have not found the death date for Anna Catharina HELFFENBEIN.

Although several researchers say that Johann Conrad EULER's children were born in Maar, my search revealed none of them were born in Maar. Since Conrad was supposed to be married in London in 1709, do you think it is possible that he remained in England until he migrated to America in 1729?

You mentioned that you have only one child in Michel's family, so I am enclosing a Family Group sheet of his family. I hope it comes through all right in the e-mail. Please note the surname GEMELCK was also spelled MELCK often in the Landenhausen records. It was in these records that I found Anna Margretha baptized on 13 June 1686 as a daughter of Johannes GEMELCK and Anna RODEN (also spelled ROTHEN) I did not find any GEMELCK's in the Maar records.

I hope this will provide you with some new clues for more EULER research.

Mark

Subject: Rev Learner Blackman,b Atlantic Co,NJ -drowned Cincinnati 1815

I'm about to import the chapter on Rev Learner Blackman from Rev James B. Finley's book on early Methodist Rev's. His sister,and husband,lead the 1803 Jersey colony to Old Bethel,and,1815,was followed by his brother,my James Blackman. Learner drowned just after a visit with them,and a Methodist conference meeting in Cincinnati. 1970's,the Wesleyn Methodist church on East 5th,downtown Cincinnati, was destroyed so that Procter and Gamble could build their new head quarters towers. And I have a newspaper article of Rev Learner Blackman's tombstone being found beneath the church floor, and picture of same. Downtown Cincinnati had [has?] for years,a private club called the L.B. Harrison club. The L.B. was Learner Blackman. The Harrison portion,my Mon said,was the 2 US President's Harrison's. Several other boys were named for Learner Blackman. And many for the ecentric Rev Lorenzo Dow,with whom Blackman rode the Natchez Trace about 1803. I don't agree entirely with the following,but as Rev Finley wrote,1847-

CHAPTER 14

LEARNER BLACKMAN

The subject of our present sketch was born in the state of New Jersey; but in regard to the exact date of his birth we have no opportunity of knowing. He was descended from pious parents, and many members of the family, at different periods of life, became religious. Our acquaintance with brother Blackman commenced in the year 1808. He was a brother-in-law of the Rev. John Collins, through whose instrumentality he was brought into the kingdom of grace, and made an heir of salvation. The personal appearance of Blackman was prepossessing, and impressed one, in looking upon his tall, slender form, and dark, flashing eye, that he had genius and eloquence; but when engaged in conversation, the brilliance and fascination of his manners would demonstrate that fact in a remarkable degree. To judge of his eloquence, however, he must be heard; and none who were permitted to listen to his silvery voice, when engaged in description, or its impassioned strains when in declamation, would go away without being impressed with his power over the heart. He may have taken the pathetic Collins for his model as a pulpit orator. Of this, however, we can not speak assuredly; but whoever was his model, or whether he had any that he copied after, one thing is certain, he was an eloquent divine.

We have been favored with a description of western preachers by one who has lived to witness what he calls the various phases through which the pulpit style has passed in his day. Among the, first class of Methodist preachers there was a marked, if not an exclusive attention and devotion to doctrinal preaching. In all their sermons the distinctive doctrines of Methodism occupied the chief place. Repentance, faith, justification, sanctification, the possibility of falling from grace, with the doctrine of the atonement as contradistinguished from the Calvinian view, and occasional brushes at Church polity and ordinances as held by other denominations, formed the staples of the sermons of these early preachers. But not only was Calvinism attacked; Arianism, Universalism, and other forms of error were made feel the lash of these sturdy pioneers of the faith of Wesley.

The next class which immediately succeeded these, in a great measure lost sight of polemic theology, and turned their attention to the graces of oratory. Their sermons were profusely interlarded with poetry, and some of the preachers possessed a peculiar penchant for blank verse. We recollect to have heard it said of one of the preachers of this class, that "he would break a square any time to make a jingle." Nicely-rounded periods, beauty of expression, and fine, rhetorical flourishes, were regarded as of more importance than orthodoxy itself. Still, however, there were exceptions to this general rule, as also in regards to the first class.

This class had its day, and was followed by a third, and succeeding one, whose characteristic consisted in a didactic style of preaching. Their sermons, though not elaborately ornamented with poetry and flights of fancy, were, nevertheless, illustrated, from beginning to end, with anecdotes and incidents, some of which were so appropriate, that they are told by preachers of this class with thrilling effect, even to this day. A well authenticated anecdote or incident, in the hands of a skillful preacher, will frequently accomplish more in arresting the attention and stirring up the soul to action, than the most powerful declamation itself. We shall have occasion, in another part of this book, to relates some of these. This peculiar style of preaching, however, did not last always. It served its allotted time and gave way, not to a new class, but to the revival of an old one; and it seems that it did not stop in a medium in regard to its predecessors, but bounded back to the old stock, and revived the good old doctrinal style, mixing it up, however, with a little more of the, historical and exegetical. How far this applies to the Methodist pulpit of the present day, your old friend will leave some graphic delineator of the times to describe. We do not profess to wield such a pen as would claim for us the qualification to enter upon the task of describing the Methodist pulpit of the present day, though were we to assume it we would not be disposed to consider it as being marked by any one striking characteristic distinguishing it from the pulpits of other denominations. We believe the Methodist pulpit to have vastly more learning at the present time than at any former period; but whether it possesses more zeal, and devotion, and wisdom, such as is adequate to win souls to Christ, is a question we shall not at present discuss, only so far as to say that our Church seems, in the hands of the present ministry, to be enlarging her borders beyond all precedent, in every section of the country.

But we ask pardon of our readers for having digressed so far from our subject, and shall resume our sketch of the young and talented Blackman. At the early age of nineteen he commenced his itinerant life. He was admitted on trial in the year 1800, and sent to Kent circuit. After this he traveled in regular succession Dover, Russell, New River, and Lexington circuits. Concerning his labors in these respective fields we have no information. In the year 1805 he was sent as a missionary to Natchez, thus passing rapidly over a vast extents of country.

The new field of labor to which he was destined was then the farthest west. To reach his appointment it was necessary for him to travel through a wilderness seven or eight hundred miles in extent, untenanted, except by savages and beasts of prey. But no, there were worse men than savages and beasts of prey -- more cruel than the panther. We allude to those Indian traders who, to rob the red man of his skins and furs, would give them ardent spirits to drink and make them drunk, so that they would, in turn, rob and murder the traveler. It is the example of the white man that gave to the Indian character its desperate savageness; and as an old soldier and statesman, well acquainted with the history and policy of the nation, the other day remarked in Congress, "In every treaty that has been violated by the Indians the white man has been the aggressor."

Nothing daunted, our young hero missionary started on his journey. For fourteen days and nights he traveled alone and unattended through the wilderness. At night he would hitch his horse, and taking his saddlebags for a pillow and his blanket for a covering, he would lie down in the woods, commending himself to the keeping of his God. At length he arrived at the place of his destination. Methodism had scarcely gained an existence in the place. Yet there were a few who had been awakened and converted to God through the labors of Rev. Tobias Gibson, and they were struggling to keep alive the spark of grace in the midst of the superabounding wickedness. Notwithstanding there were some reputable persons friendly disposed to religion and morals, yet it was a lamentable fact that the vast majority were totally bankrupt in morals, and their proud hearts and vicious lives made them decided opponents of the Gospel of Christ; but their opposition was more strictly arrayed against those who preached it. At one time, when a plain, unlettered man was preaching, the wicked portion of the audience had great merriment on account of his ignorance of correct language. It seems that they had set themselves up to be judges, not hearers, of the word. We have such hearers at the present day. They will make a man offend for a word, and they will tax their shallow brains so much to recollect that, such is their anxiety to criticize, that if one should ask them about the division of the subject, or even the text itself, their feeble brains can not recall it. They are unable to hold but one idea at a time. At one time the grammar of this preacher was at fault, at another time his rhetoric, and then his logic, besides his gestures were awkward, etc. They did all they could to hedge up the poor man's way, and said he was not competent to preach. However, he was not to be intimidated by the laugh and sneer of his ungodly hearers. On one of his visits he took for his text the following: "Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell!" Then said he in tones of thunder, "Gentlemen, is that grammar?" he was divinely assisted in his sermon, and having greatly the advantage of his censors, who sat as if taken by surprise, he kept it by pouring upon them passage after passage of divine denunciation upon the wicked, frequently asking the annoying question, "Gentlemen, is that grammar?" So successful was that effort, that ever afterward there was a studied silence in regard to the preacher's defects, and his grammar never afterward was called in question.

In the midst of such society young Blackman commenced his labors in that distant region. He was a stranger in a strange land, far from home and kindred. There were then no missionary funds to aid the itinerant in planting the Gospel in destitute places, and all the support upon which he could rely was the naked promise, "Lo, I am with you alway, even to the end of the world." He shared largely in the labors, privations, and reproaches incident to his calling, as a minister; but he realized the fulfillment of the promise in the presence of his Master, and the consolations of his grace. Occasionally the bright and happy scenes of home would flit across his memory, and the temptation to return to the loved ones he had left would be presented to his mind. "Surely," would the tempter say, "Your God is not a hard master, and he does not require you to preach the Gospel to these who will neither receive nor support it." But "The vows of God were on him,

And he dare not turn aside to Pluck terrestrial fruit, or play with Earthy flowers."

What if they did not receive him; they also rejected his Master, and the servant must not be greater than his Lord; so in faith, and patience, and hope he labored on in the service of his King and Savior.

In the year 1806 he was appointed presiding elder of the Mississippi district. Now laborers were brought into the field, which, while it proved a source of mutual encouragement, enabled them to present a stronger front to the enemy. The strongholds of sin and infidelity were attacked; errors, incrusted by time and fortified by custom, were destroyed; prejudices, the most inveterate, were driven away; and the light of the Gospel began to shed its cheering beams upon the long night of darkness which had reigned. Sinners were awakened and converted to God, houses of worship were erected, Churches organized, and the institutions of religion established; in fine, "the wilderness and solitary places were made glad, and the desert to rejoice and blossom as the rose," through the instrumentality of these faithful, self-denying heralds of the cross. In all the bounds of his present field of labor, when he first entered upon his work, there were but seventy-four whites and sixty-two colored members; and after three years labor he was permitted to see embraced in the same field an entire district, with five circuits and a large increase in the membership.

But the itinerant system required him to cultivate other fields, and he left the lowlands of Mississippi, where he was beloved and respected by a numerous host of friends, whom God had raised up as the fruits of his labors, and went to Tennessee to preside on the Holston district. Here he continued two years, and from thence was removed to the Cumberland district, where he also remained two years, and at the expiration of which time he was placed, by the authorities of the Church, on the Nashville district. On all these fields he was in labors more abundant, and God crowned those labors with success, by making them effectual in bringing into the Church a rich harvest of souls. Perhaps under the labors of no one, in his day, were the borders of Zion more enlarged in the lengthening of her cords and the strengthening of her stakes. In the year 1815 he was reappointed to the Cumberland district. In the mean time he had married; and desirous of visiting his relations in Ohio, among whom was brother Collins, who had married his sister, he took a few days of spare time for that purpose.

He was again at his home and surrounded by the scenes of his youth -- surrounded by the friends of other days, whose presence called up hallowed associations. After enjoying their society for a short time -- for he could spare but a little while to turn aside and greet his friends -- he bade them adieu and started for the field of his labors. Many tears were shed at parting, but none knew that they were the tears of a last farewell. None knew that in a few hours that tall, graceful form would be cold in death, and that dark but kindly eye, which beamed with such happiness, would close its light on earth forever. But the ways of God are inscrutable;

"Impervious shadows hide
The mystery of heaven."

The minister and his young, blooming bride, on their return, reached Cincinnati. Here they must cross the Ohio; but no proud steamer, as now, with its spacious guards spread out to the beach, is waiting to receive the passengers and ferry them over. A crazy craft, with sails and paddles, in that olden time, was all the means possessed for keeping up a communication between Ohio and Kentucky. Alighting from the carriage, the horses were driven into the flat, and it was pushed from the shore. Brother Blackman stood in front of his horses to hold them. When all was clear, and the boat was a short distance from the shore, the ferryman commenced hoisting his sails, the sight or flapping of which frightened the horses. Blackman made every effort to hold them, but before assistance could be had they plunged overboard, taking him with them. He had a strong arm and was a good swimmer; but, alas! neither strength nor skill can avail when the work of man is done. Till that hour he was immortal, but the time had come for the termination of his labors and his release from earth. He sank to rise no more a living man, till Jesus shall wake his saints from the sleep of death and call them up to heaven. Thus ended the laborious life of the young and talented Learner Blackman; and though the waters of the river, which roll yonder, quenched his life and drowned his dying words, yet we believe he sleeps in Jesus.

HI: We found a letter written by one of WSP Eyler's older brothers. He said George Washington Eyler's parents came from Prussia, right after the battle of Eylau with Napoleun (sp?). Their surname was Eylau. Because it was so hard to say they changed it to Eyler when the got to the United 24689 States. George Washington Eyler had two younger brothers and when the Civil War started they lived in Gettysburg. The two younger brothers were Southern sympathizers, George (since he was the head of the family) told them they could not claim the Eyler name and to leave, but choose other names. Now, I'm going to check boats from Germany for Eylau prior to 1819. Since GWE was born that year. Thought you might be interested in this information. Ardean

Subject: Stogner and Iler connection

Mary Dee - Yes, I do know about Nancy and Thomas Iler. Nancy Elizabeth — 15662
Martin, born 1848, Ohio Co., KY, married her cousin, Alfred Stogner, born 1847, Jefferson Co., KY. Nancy was the daughter of Anderson Martin and Mary Stogner. They married 1867, Ohio Co., KY and had four children together, that I know of. Alfred died 1872, Ohio Co. and was buried at Bethel Church cemetery, Ohio Co., KY.

1) William Andrew Stogner was born 1868. He lived in Logan Co., Ky all his life, as far as I have found. His son was born in Mulenburg Co., KY and his children were born in IL. 15663 x

2) Louisa L. Stogner was born 1869. I have no further on her. 51919

3) Alonzo Luther Stogner was born 1870. He died in Todd Co., KY. 15665

4) James Alfred Stogner was born 1872. He died in Rosine, Ohio Co., KY. x 51920

They were all born in Ohio Co., KY.

This also gives us the last name of Nancy which wasn't Bennet. This also answers some questions I found in my search. What do you think? Have you heard of this before? Bye for now.

Subject: New Info

Hello Morgan:

6 51889

I've just uncovered some interesting information you may like to have. Jacob Iler, Srs., (18354 NY), last wife, Lovius Lavina (1835~~3~~ NY*), was the widow of a Christian Searfoss. Christian Searfoss # (AFN:RHOD-5B), from LDS, Family Group Record, Ancestral Files, and Lovius Lavina, had 10 children. One of which was a daughter, Sarah Searfoss (18358 NY1*), and LDS # (AFN:216G-H94), who married John Iler, Sr. (18357 NY1).

So, it turns out that the daughter, Sarah, of Christian Searfoss & Lovius Lavina, was the daughter-in-law of Jacob Iler, Sr. Confusing, to say the least, don't you think?

Also, the parents of Christian Searfoss were, Philip Servas Searfass, (AFN:RHOC-R9), born abt. 1712, in Germany, and died, between 1786-1787, in Chestnut Hill, Monroe Co, PA. His wife was, Maria (Mary) Catharina Altemus, (AFN:RHOF-1R), born 29 Jan 1719, in Germany, and died aft. 1787, in Monroe Co, PA. 52026

I also, have the parents & ,others parents of Maria Catharina Altemus, if your interested.

Hope your finally feeling back to good health,
George Iler (16407 NY112111)

Subject: Your Pedigree, etc.

Hello Again:

I just came across a web site that you may or may not know of. It has many of your family names and info on it. Try this: http://www.ilos.net/~lhowland/html-va/dat40.htm#0 By looking at your compressed pedigree, in one of the NY Iler Family books that you sent me a while back, it has some names spelled different & also some different dates, etc. The weird thing is the submitter is Laurie McDaniels Howland, whom I've never been in contact with, but I am also descended from the Howland line.

In a letter I received a while ago from a relative in Michigan, he stated that my Jacob Iler (18354 NY), comes from a mathematician, in Germany. In doing some research into this, I found that the greatest mathematician of the 18th century was a Leonhard Euler, (1707-1783). He was Swiss in origin. He had 13 children, which only 5 survived infancy. 2 of which were Johann Albrecht Euler & Christian Euler, both of which were also mathematicians. When I seen this spelling of Euler, I thought of your line.I know that Iler is sometimes spelled that way. Leonhard's father was Paul Euler, & his mother was Katharina Gsell.

So, who knows, maybe connected to your line or mine. I hope you find this an interesting tidbit.

Your friend,
George

In regards to the marriage of Jacob Iler & Margaret Lukebaugh, as show in Homer Eiler's book, on page 6, as being on 23 Jun, 1802.I also found a listing for same in a database of Frederick Co, MD, marriages, 1778-1850. On 7 Nov, 2000, I found an IGI record, that shows a Jacob Eyler, born Abt 1783, in Graceham, Frederick, MD, Spouse = Margaret Luckenbach = Film #447902.
Another IGI record shows: Jacob Eyler married to Margaret Luckenbach, abt 1808 in Graceham, Frederick, MD = Film #455258.
I don't think this is my Jacob iler, noting the birth date given, but who knows for sure, any comments or thoughts???

One last item: In your e-mail to me, yesterday, you show me as mentioning a "W Monroe". I checked my last 2 e-mails to you and find no mention of this person. Are you thinking of someone else, or am I missing something??

Ann Scott Swain Bailey, reprinted by the Southern Printing Co.

Benjamin Weddle, son of Elijah, and grandson of Michael, married Annie Maria Eiler in Lancaster County, and moved south to "Horseshoe Bend" on New River, just east of the present city of Radford. While ther he was enlisted in the militia of Augusta County, Virginia, fig the Indians. He was captain of a company of militia under General Andrew Lewis at the Battle Point Pleasand, fought in 1774. He held the front line of battle until General Lewis gained rear, when the Indians under the celebrated Chief Cornstalk were completely routed. The tradition is that a price was placed on the head of Captain Weddle, who removed his family f the "Horseshoe Bend" to Bent Mountain in the east end of the present county of Floyd. He li there for a short while, then settled permanently on the West Fork of Little River, about se miles west of the courthouse, where Daniel Spangler now (1926) lives. The old log house erected by Benjamin Weddle, though added to and changed to some extent, is yet standing.
Benjamin Weddle bought 1568 acres of land, Feb 27, 1790; family records indicate that the la warrants were signed by Patrick Henry, Governor of Virginia. The land joined the lands of El Hylton, and here these two settlers lived and their children intermarried.

Benjamin Weddle died and was buried on Bent Mountain in the year 1807. Benjamin Weddle was in the habit of making a trip each year in a six-horse wagon to Lynchburg, Virgin bringing back salt, sugar and such supplies that were needed in those days. On the return of a trip in the year 1807, he was taken sick on the top of Bent Mountain and died, and was bur there. His granddaughter, Mrs. Daniel Spangler, who lives in his old home, has a much prized possession, a large pewter dish or platter, fifteen or sixteen inches in diameter, which was in the wagonload of goods at the time of his death. End of extract

Assuming that he was at least 21 when he was in the militia, Benjamin was born before 17

Signed by Benjamin Weddle's mark. Witnessed by Isiah Harmon, Joseph Hoff, Robert Goodson. Probated at April Court 1807, Montgomery Co. End of will.

This will is not exactly consistent with the story about a man who died unexpectedly back from a supply trip.

The Weddle family has a tradition that the immigrant ancestor was John Michael Weddl who came over on the "Francis and Elizabeth" on Sep 21 1742. His son Elijah died on the voyage. Elijah was the father of Benjamin, who was born in America between the arrival of t ship and the end of the year. However, there is a will in the Fincastle Court House of Marti Weddle that mentions Martin's son Benjamin and daughter Barbara. Kate believes that Martin was perhaps an uncle who adopted Benjamin. The family bible in the possession of Virginia Weddle (Mrs. C.C. Correll) seems to indicate that the original ancestor was Michael, however

Kate goes on to say that after coming to VA, Benjamin lived for awhile on the Horse Sh Bend on New River in Montgomery Co, near Ft Black and near present-day Blacksburg VA. He was a captain in the VA Militia under General Andrew Lewis fighting the Indians. There is a oral tradition tothe effect that Benjamin was one of the heroes in the Battle at Point Pleas
WV. The tradition is that in 1774 Benjamin and the Militia won against the Indians, which th Governor of VA, Dunmore, didn't want. Dunmore put a price on Benjamin's head, which caused him to move further into the wilderness, near Bent Mountain. He ended up patening land in Floyd Co, apparently for service in the Revolution. End of extract

Name spelled Weddle, Waidele, Wedel, Waddle, Weddell.

1793 court order book 7, page 131 lists Benjamin Weddle, Lieutenant 75th Regiment Virgin
Militia, Montgomery Co

1805 book 14 p 222 (Montgomery Co?) lists Johas Weddle, Lieutenant, 1st Battalion, 75th Regiment VA Militia.

Extract from 1804 court order book, Montgomery Co, p 423

The following are Ben Weddle's notes on this individual.

BHW- Served as an officer in the Colonial Army under General Andrew Lewis and went to Point Pleasant on the Ohio. Said to have fought Cornstalk there. Settled about 8 miles west Floyd, VA .Was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. Patented 1600 acres while Patrick Henry was Governor of Va. His great-great Granddaughter, Mrs Amanda Mitchell has a pewter plate and a lantern that were in his wagon when he died. The record of his family was destroyed wh fire burned the home of Alexander Weddle about 1885.

Ethel H. Weddle- Benjamin's great-grandson, Jacob Hylton, was driving Benjamin Weddle's big produce wagon from Richmond to Floyd County when Benjamin suddenly died on the wagon.

BHW- He lived in Montgomery Co on the Big Bend of the New River for some time and also lived in Botetourt Co before moving to what is now Floyd Co. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He is listed in Captain William Love's Company under Col William Preston, 1781, also in Captain James Bryn's Company.

He settled in Floyd Co in 1790 one half mile from the location of the present Topeco Chu of the Brethren. According to tradition, the first Love Feast was held in his home in 1800. West Arm of the Floyd Brethren held their worship services in the homes , barns, and groves the members, including the log cabin of Benjamin Weddle who had come to the area in 1790 from Landcaster, PA. In the July , 1976 issue of the Floyd Press descendants of Ben Weddle listed were: Mrs. Lorraine Sutphin Weeks, Mrs. Kate Sutphin Harman, Mrs. Anne James Holmquest, and Kate Weddle Ratliff (Mrs. Wilson.)

Bill Epperly- Benjamin, son of Elijah, was born in 1742 either in Philadelphia or aboard enroute to that city. The family settled in Lancaster Co ,PA. Benjamin married Ann Marie Eil and moved to the Horseshoe Bend area near the present city of Radford,VA. In 1774 Benjamin served under Major Andrew Lewis at the battle of Point Pleasant where the Indians were drive across the Ohio River. After the battle the Indian Chief, Cornstalk, was led into a trap and from ambush. Lord Dunmore, Governor of VA, was censured by the British Gov't for the killing of Cornstalk, with whom they had a treaty of sorts, and Dunmore, to shift the blame, declared Benjamin Weddle an outlaw for his part in the ambush. Benjamin Weddle then took his family and moved into the wilderness, settling on West Fork Creek about five miles from present town of Floyd. Meanwhile his wife , Ann Marie Eiler, drowned while swimming her horse across the New River. There is no record of a later marriage. By 1807 Ben had apparen become quite prosperous, owning some 5000 acres on West Fork. He was accustomed to making periodic trips to Lynchburg, the nearest town of any size to purchase supplies. While on the return from one of these trips in 1807, he became ill and died on Bent Mountain. He was 65 years old. All the Weddles in Floyd Co, and there are many of them, are descended from Benjamin.

Ruth Weddle Thigpen- COPIED FROM THE FLOYD PRESS, FLOYD, VIRGINIA THURSDAY JULY 2, 1930 At an unknown date, Michael Weddle left the banks of the Rhine River and came to Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He brought with him a large German Bible which is yet in the hands of his descendants. He had a son named Elijah born to him in Lancaster Co., PA. Elijah had a son named Benjamin Weddle who married Annie Marie Ellen in Lancaster Co.,PA. Later he was an officer in the Colonial Army under General Andrew Lewis and went with him on an expedition against the Indians. The Royal Governor of Virginia Lord Dunmore, ordered them to go to Chillicothe, Ohio and give the Indians battle at that place. Suspicious of a trick, they prepared for a surprise attack, but when they reached Point Plea Ohio the Indians sprung upon them from ambush. With Weddle holding the front until Lewis could get to the rear, the Indians were severely beaten and fled. Dunmore was so enraged by patriotism of these heroes and so outdone by their success that he put a price upon Benjamin weddle's head. Benjamin Weddle fled to the horseshoe on the New River where the City of Radford now stands. Learning that Dunmore had a bunch of men after him, he was willing to stand his ground and defend himself, but yielding to the entreaties of his wife went to Bent Mountain, VA. His pursuers burnt his cabin and followed him. Leaving Bent Mountain, he went to the place now owned by C. H. Mitchell, about eight miles west of Floyd, VA. Settling ther was never disturbed by his enemies. He raised the following children: Sons -David, Jonas, Martin, John, and Andrew Daughters - Katherine, Barbara, Sarah,and Margaret.

Libbie Blair- My grandmother was always told that Benjamin was born at sea- G-mother sai all of Ben's mother's family were coming to the New World and the mother was not well, but s did not want to be left there alone and begged to come with the family, but she did not live here. I do not know but G-mother use to tell me about it and it seemed so sad the way she to She was told about it by her father John and grand-father David. David got the Bible from Be sale and gave it to John as he was the only one in the family that had learned the language could read it. End of Ben Weddle's notes.

Ben shows the children in order as Eve, David, John, Jonas, Elizabeth, Catherine, Rebecc Andrew, Margaret, Sarah, Susannah, Martin, Barbara. This is a slightly different order than one given here.

Peggy Colella in her Tofflemire Book shows such a marriage on 29 sept 1910 and I had thought it was your Aunt Mary as mentioned above. I don't have record of any other Mary Iler in the appropriate time frame and Peggy gives no indication of her ancestry. The Mary Iler Peggy records had two children by this Tofflemire marriage. However no dates of death or other related information is shown. One son was Hugh Peter Tofflemire b. 30 Oct 1911, Harrow, ON.

Dear Morgan,
As you can see it is a long time since I have been working on this. Wilson 1580 and Lydia Iler had 4 daughters and a son who died in infancy (Clarence). The four daughters are Jessie, Mary, Evangeline, and Viola. Jessie was my grandmother. You have her picture on the printout you sent in G01580.bmp. The four daughters are pictured in G05276. Mary was married in 1925 to a Frank Upton. She died in Sept 1971. They had 4 children : Calvin, Hugh, 47963 ? Betty and Virginia. Perhaps this is the Hugh from a previous marriage. I think I remember my mother saying she married twice. I will have to check on that.
Jessie had nine children- 5 girls and 2 boys. (I don't remember what I sent you). There are 19 grandchildren including 2 adoptions. Obviously, no more Ilers!) I'm not sure of the count on great grandchildren.
Do you have any stories about the old Ilers that you could pass on. I must say that the stories do bring the dates and names to life. I have the Trail of the Black Walnut. What do you know about the original immigrant Conrad Iler? and where he landed and which boat etc?
My mother is going to buy a scanner for my birthday present so that we can include pictures. I could then send you a picture of Jessie's entire family taken in abouts 1959. We were just missing an inlaw or two and a yet to be born cousin of mine.
I am wondering how you found the information on Wilson since he left the Harrow area so long ago. My aunt Ruth corresponded with a B.P. Helferich in western US who was doing up his family tree in the 80s. I will ask Edith Woodbridge about the results of his work.

Do you know which Jacob Iler is the one referred to as Rev. Jacob Iler of Cottam. I have story about him regarding the rebellion of 1837.
Thank you for any help you can give me. I tried using the new Mormon web site after Edith announced it, but did not have much success finding anyone! They say they have everyone but I couldn't find us. Have you tried it?
Sincerely, Cheryl Bailey

Dear Morgan,

I really did appreciate the source material you sent me concerning the German EULER's much more than this late acknowledgment would indicate. I have been visiting the main Family History Library several times each week, so I kept waiting to reply until I felt I had exhausted the resources there. I kept hoping each visit would reveal the correct records on the EULER's. Unfortunately, I have not yet been able to locate Johann Conrad EULER where most researchers claim he should be. He is not in the Maar German church records (Maar microfilm 1195833), nor in any of the many nearby villages that I searched. I have finally come to the conclusion that the Conrad supposedly born 16 July 1675 in Maar is not our direct ancestor. Here are my reasons:

1. I found the death record for this Johann Conrad who was the son of Michel EULER and Anna Catharina HELFFENBEIN. He died in Maar on 22 August 1727, at the age of 52. The death record stated that he had been married for 30 years. His wife, Anna Catharina ROCKEL, died just the previous month at the age of 47. They had 5 children (3 daughters and 2 sons). I can send you a family group sheet of this couple if your need it.

2. I found eight children for Michel EULER and Anna Catharina HELFFENBEIN (usually spelled with 2 "F's"). Never once did I find the name Conrad Michel EULER listed as the father. According to the common German custom of naming children, such a double given name would have been extremely rare. Most often after the children were baptized their first given name (Johann, Maria,etc.)was dropped.

3. I found no other Johann Conrad's born in 1675 in Maar. This means that we are not related to the HELFFENBEIN's, unless our Johann Conrad is related to another HELFFENBEIN line from some other area. There are many HELFFENBEIN's in Landenhausen, a few miles southeast of Maar.

4. I did not find a Conrad born in 1679 in Schwartzenen, Germany as claimed by Arenson. Apparently, there is no town by that name.

5. There was no Conrad born on 22 Nov. 1687 in Cleebronn, Germany as claimed by Dorothy Boyle.

6. According to Tribbeko and Ruperti in their book "List of Germans from the Palatinate who came to England in 1709," Conrad was 30, and had no wife on the 27 May 1709 list. It would have been very unusual for him to be unmarried at that age, and then to have married Anna Margaretha GEMELCK on 3 July 1709 without having known her previously. If he were born in 1675, he would have been 34 when married, and perhaps more than 50 when his last child was born. (All possible, but very unusual).

7. I searched many dozens of microfilms of churches around Maar without finding any Conrad that would fit the right age bracket.

8. I never found any of Conrad's children who were supposed to be born in Maar between 1714 and 1722 (no John Valentine on 14 Dec 1722). This leads me to believe that Conrad and Anna Margaretha GEMELCK did not live in Maar after their marriage.

9. The pedigree charts you sent of ancestors of Cleo Grigg and William Oyler show Anna Margaret GEMELCKS born 1694. There were no GEMELCK's in Maar records. I found many GEMELCK (no "S") (often spelled MELCK) in Griesheim (which is near Darmstadt, not Frankfurt as Dern's map shows). She was the daughter of Johannes GEMELCK (MELCK and Anna RODEN (sometimes spelled ROTH). Assuming these are our ancestors, I am enclosing several family group sheets for these new ancestors. I am still searching for more GEMELCK and RODEN families. If you would like these, I can send them later.

I found a few errors on the letter you received from Cleo Grigg Johnson Gilchrist on 9 Nov. 1980. She wrote the following:

1. Conrad EULER married 18 Feb 1698 to Anna Catharina ROCKELIN. The correct date was 10 Feb 1698. On several of your family group sheets you have the spouse of Johan Conrad EULER as Anna Catharina POCKELVN (51134) born about 1675. The correct name and date should be ROCKEL born 7 August 1679 in Maar. She died 24 July 1727.

2. Conrad EULER married 20 March 1702 to Anna Catharina HELFFENBEIN. The correct date was 20 April 1702.

3. Anna Margaretha EULER, born 22 July 1721 to Conrad EULER. The correct date was 10 July 1721. I have no idea where she obtained her data, but it is apparent that her accuracy needs to be confirmed.

If my reasoning that Michel HELFFENBEIN is not our ancestor appears to be correct, you have my permission to send these data to those for whom you have e-mail addresses, so they may correct their files, if they so desire. Thanks again for your generous help.

Sincerely,

Mark

Charles M. Chesnutwood

P.S. I am enclosing $5.00 to help cover some of the postage and copying expense of the material you sent me.

Subject: New Information

Hello Morgan:

I got a new toy for Christmas, an Intel PC Camera, now if I can learn how to use it.

Here is some new information, that I don't think you have. I was looking on the Social Security Death Index, this morning, and found out the following.

#18583 NY4321 = Roy E Brimm 22 Apr 1909 - 26 May 1998 #331-01-1477 IL/IL
Last residence = Decatur, Macon Co, IL 62521
#18586 NY4324 = Derald Clinton Brimm 23 Apr 1914 - 17 Aug 1990 #328-10-2366 IL/?
Last residence ?
#18587 NY4325 = Woodrow Wilson Brimm 31 Mar 1916 - 22 May 1988 #445-09-8434 OK/OK
Last residence = Tulsa, Osage Co, OK 74127
#18581 NY432 = Addie (nee Iler) Brimm 17 Sept 1876 - Jul 1972 IL/IL
Last residence = Decatur, Macon Co, IL 62521
#18596 NY4344 = John Thomas Eiler = 28 Jan 1920 - 30 Apr 1998 IL/IL
Last residence = Pana, Christian Co, IL 62557
#18592 NY434* = Jessie (nee Rowley) Eiler = 5 Apr 1898 - Dec 1967 #361-05-1809 IL/IL
Last residence = Pana, Christian Co, IL 62557
(If this is the correct person, she was only 14 years & 7 months old when married, if marriage date, of 31 Oct 1912 is correct.)
#18602 NY4421 = Roscoe Eiler = 8 Sept 1903 - Sept 1979 #330-28-3406
Last residence = Highland, Madison Co, IL 62249
This next person I can't find in your information that I have, but maybe related to, Roscoe Eiler, what do you think, or do you have the following person already? They have the same last residence. Possible daughter???

Hilda Eiler = 21Aug 1918 - 26 May 1998 #331-01-0477 IL/IL
57744 Last residence = Highland, Madison Co, IL 62249 di 2093

Sincerely,
George Iler #16407 NY112111

Morgan:

I hope I'm not confusing you, but I just noticed that Roscoe Eiler & Marie Cannon were married 30 June 1927. Hilda Eiler was born 21 Aug 1918, so if both dates are correct, who knows. It was just because Roscoe & Hilda had the same (Last Residence Address in SS Death Index) that I thought of this as a possiblity. I'll tell you what I will do, I'll send a SS-5 form to the Social Security, and get the record, and that will straighten out the problem. Don't you just love this detective work?

George

Morgan:

I just saved $7.00, because I went to Ancestry. Com, and looked for Roscoe Eiler from IL. They had 1 listing as follows: Roscoe Dutton Eiler married to Hilda Kathryn Martin, whose parents were Thomas Alvin Martin & Minnie Vandersand. Roscoe & Hilda had 2 children living, 1 son & 1 daughter, no names given.

So, Roscoe must have married ~~have~~ Marie Cannon 1st, then to Hilda Martin 2nd, because Hilda wasn't born until 1918.

What do you think? Sorry to be a pain in he neck, but once I start on something, I can't seem to stop until I figure it out.

George

Dear Morgan,

You are right, electronic mail is much simpler and in your case much more practical. I can't imagine trying to keep up with 500 family members the old fashion way, let alone actually doing it by any other means than e-mail. I thank you very much for taking the time to drop me the line.

The timing was right, also, cause I have some additional data for you. I was going through data bases and received a message from an inquiry from a few months back about the Cross family in Baltimore. Well, this gentleman responded that he had been tracking that family, just not in his direct line.

What he had for me was information on Capt. Talbert Iler's daughter, from his first marriage. I have asked for clarification, but one of his notes shows her being born in PA, while two census records have her as a MD birth. Anyway, what is known is that she was born in March of 1847.

19803 19804
Mary A. Iler & George R. Cross (b. Jan, 1846, MD) had 4 children - two boys and two girls:

a. George A. Cross, b. abt 1874 52254

b. Hudson Cross, b. abt 1878, d. Nov 23, 1883, Balt, MD 52255

c. Margaret J. Cross, b. Nov 1882 52256

d. Mary F. Cross, b. Dec 15, 1890 52257

By virtue of their birth dates I have figured that Margaret married Robert Jackson and it is their son - William Iler Jackson who is listed in the 1904 obit of Capt. Iler.
52258 52259

Interesting to see, how much love and affection Mary had for her step-mother, having apparently named her 2nd and 3rd child with her step-mom's surname and first name, respectively. Feelings were not quite that warm when the Captain died and his 1st daughter received nothing. She ended up forcing the Ilers of Philadelphia to sell the farm down in Chesapeake City, MD, so that she could get her inheritance. Husband George ended up buying the property and Mary bought the house, individually. I think it was a little twisting of the knife.

Those are the pieces I have - now must run. I'll keep in touch. Take care and thanks again for the note.

Notes for CAPT. JOHN HYLAND ILER:
Leading Families - Baltimore City & County, 1897, Extract from Capt. Tolbert Stephen Iler:
"In early days his father ran a packet to Frenchtown, connecting with the line between Frenchtown and Newcastle. At the time of the war of 1812 his vessel was sunk by the British, while they were on their way to burn Frenchtown. March 17, 1820, having sold his vessel in Baltimore, he returned to Court House Point, on the Elk river, but when going ashore in his brother's boat, the vessel was capsized and he was drowned."
Note in this write-up, John is listed with a middle name of "Highland". Cecil County has a well know and established family of "Hyland".

Notes for Capt. Talbert Steven Iler:
U of Delaware Library, F189.B1 G3
Leading Families - Baltimore City & County, 1897 edition, various extracts, re-typed as published:
He was reared at Bohemia Manor and had very limited educational advantages, his present fund of information having been acquired solely through his own efforts. At the age of seventeen, in 1838, he went to the East Indies on the ship Lehigh, of Philadelphia, owned by John McCrea, the tea merchant. They were ninety-eight days on the voyage from Philadelphia to Canton, China, and on hundred and eleven days in returning, the journey being made via Cape of Good Hope. On arriving in this country again, he went aboard the Richmond, sailing between Richmond and Philadelphia. The following year he went to Tampico, Mexico, on the brig Norfolk, but after returning from that voyage he left the high seas and began to work in inland sailing. In the spring of 1841 he entered the employ of the Ericsson Line company, with who he has remained.
In politics Captain Iler is an old-line Democrat, fraternally he affiliates with the Odd Fellows, and in religious belief he is a Presbyterian.
Note the spelling, in the above document, of Talbert.

Children of MARY ILER and GEORGE CROSS are:

i. GEORGE A.^{5} CROSS, b. Abt. 1874, MD.
ii. HUDSON CROSS, b. Abt. 1878, MD; d. November 23, 1883, Baltimore, MD.
iii. MARGARET J. CROSS, b. November 1882, MD; m. ROBERT W. JACKSON.

iv. MARY F. CROSS, b. December 1890, MD.

9. MARGARET (MAGGIE) HUDSON^4 ILER (TALBERT STEVEN^3, JOHN HYLAND^2, STEVEN^1) was born August 17, 1862 in Philadelphia, PA, and died January 26, 1927 in Drexel Hill, PA. She married ROBERT BEAUREGARD JONES December 11, 1889 in Philadelphia, PA, son of OLIVER JONES and MARY GODMAN. He was born August 25, 1860 in Baltimore, MD, and died Aft. January 1946 in Baltimore, MD.

Notes for ROBERT BEAUREGARD JONES:
He had been a Tea Merchant from Baltimore.

More About ROBERT JONES and MARGARET ILER:
Marriage: December 11, 1889, Philadelphia, PA

Child of MARGARET ILER and ROBERT JONES is:

i. MARGARET ILER^5 JONES, b. October 26, 1890, Philadelphia, PA; d. September 10, 1981, Drexel Hill, PA; m. ELWOOD ROSS COSTA, April 21, 1915, Philadelphia, PA; b. January 11, 1884, Philadelphia, PA; d. February 03, 1939.

Notes for MARGARET ILER JONES:
She was raised in Philadelphia and attended Friends Select School there, graduating first in her class; and worked in the Media Courthouse for 22 years in the registration office, retiring in 1962. She was a former member of the Riverview Presbyterian Church. She was buried, not with her husband but rather the Iler Family plot in the Bethel Cemetery in Cecil county Maryland

Notes for ELWOOD ROSS COSTA:
Engineer for Ballingers in Philadelphia from 1909 to 1929 - 20 plus years
Stock Market crashed on Black Thursday - pay cut; 4 months then a second pay cut; laid off for 4 years; then started back at $20/week worked himself back up to $50/week when he died.
Some of his work included the Post Office/Federal building driveway at 9th & Chestnut which no one else seemed to be able to do correctly.
During his periods of non-work and right up until his death, he made model fire engines and sold them. One fire engine is still on display in the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. It was probably the inhalation of hydrogen sulfide, that he used as a technique to age his paint, that brought about his death. He also made a 3' x 4' x 4' doll house for Marjorie - very talented with his hands. Electricity was relatively new and he did not trust it, outages were frequent too. They kept the gas lighting fixtures in the house in Drexel Hill as a backup for those dark times. Fixtures were on the first and third floor, during storms, they were often the only house in the neighborhood with lights.

Marriage Notes for MARGARET JONES and ELWOOD COSTA:
They were married at Spring Garden Methodist by Rev Lynn Bowman - same as daughter Marge.
At the time of their marriage they moved into a brand new home at 311 Riverview Ave, Drexel Hill, PA.
Along with the wife came a Mother-in-law, a grand-mother-in-law and a 2nd cousin - namely Margaret, Margaret & Lizzie (Siddie). Margaret Iler Jones Costa remained their until the early 1960's, probably after her retirement.

Dear Morgan,

I had planned on going to the Cecil County Historical Society today, but got there only to realized that this is the 3rd Saturday of the month, and they are only open on the 4th. Well I walked back to my car, looked down and saw not one, but two shinny new pennies, face up. I am not superstitious, but I will always pick them up, and hope for some more good luck - well I got my 2 cents worth today.

On my way home, I made a stop at the U of Delaware and was going to look at old newspapers, but decided to check out the reference books first. Well, after about 3 hours of reference books, I found this book titled "Leading Families Baltimore City & County".

Of course, I looked at the index, and there was Iler, Tolbert Stephen, Captain. There was a whole page dedicated to him, his accomplishments, roots, etc, - his whole life in consolidated form.

What I found most interesting was that it confirmed a lot of the information you had supplied me, but even more interesting was the info on his brothers. John and George Washington were supposed to have moved to Louisiana. When I got home I went into FamilySearch and found what I believe to be John's line, but nothing on George.

– 19799

I thought it would be easier to throw it into the computer, and show some kind of organization to it. What really makes me think that I may have struck pay dirt is the birth year of John. We knew that his parents were married on Feb 5, 1816 (new date I also found in Index of Cecil County Marriages 1777 - 1840) and that jives with the Louisiana John's date of about 1816 in Mississippi.(?)

When you get a chance, would you put some of this data into your machine and see what it spits out. I know that I am acting hastily, and may be way off base, but I do have a warm fuzzy feeling on this one.

If this works out correctly, John J. Iler (Capt. Talbert Iler's nephew) one of the Franklin Parish Sharpshooters (www.rootsweb.com/~lafrankl/fss.htm) was fighting for the South at the same time his uncle was transporting troops for the North.

Worth re-noting, as well as noted below - Capt Talbert Iler's grave stone reads that way, as does the family Bible, and I will continue to use Talbert, even though other sources show Tolbart. Also, his father John Hyland Iler will remain as same, as I do believe the family has a Hyland blood line. It is also spelled this way in the family Bible. As time permits, I will try to prove that. Perhaps now that I know the location that the Iler family lived at in Cecil County, I should be able to pinpoint it better.

Morgan, I hope this works out for you too, cause it would mean wrapping up another loose end.

Sincerely, Paul

See EM I. 211-214

You may very well be on to something..... BUT there are many John Iler's. More than one (?) in Louisiana during the same time frame you are working with (b.circa 1816-17, d.1845). The one you refer too who married Amanda (Turner) is also said to be a member of the T0 family. I've got to do some further checking before I jump to a conclusion. There are loose ends. The lady, Barbara (Bates) Iler, who did most of the research on the T0 family died several years ago. (I visited her at her home about 1992). She was a Mormon and worked part-time in their FHC in Ft Collins, CO. She had access to a lot of information!!! The ancestry of her John was different than the John in your wife's VS line. ?????? But who knows. It will take some further work to get things straight for sure. I'll send you some further info in a day or so.

Morgan: I am trying to find some information on George A. Oiler born in 1833 in Botetourt County. I think his father was Elisha B. Oiler but I would like to prove his relationship to Samuel Oiler of PA whom I am descended from. Any information would be appreciated. God Bless your day.

Morgan,

Good morning!

I believe that my line Michael Eiler could be one listed in Berks Co. church record with birth record Johann Michael EULER, son of Adam Euler. Either way, I believe Michael is son to an immigrant ADAM EYLER/EULER who arrived circa 1740, aboard "friendship", settled in Berks County, taxable list (Adam Eyler of Bern, Berks Co.)

1790 Bern, Berks Co. census, neighbors were two Eyler households. Widow Justina Eyler and family, also Michael's widow Philippina Eyler and family...

Morgan,

Thank you for the email.

I sent the miscellany obits. to you today! I waited, as I wanted to include another obit for you to have - the one that mentions Kate (Eiler) Frehafer's daughter.

aNOTHER OBIT I included, is about a Lester Eyler from Maryland

Some of the other obits may connect to my Michael Eiler line, such as George Eiler, son of Harry & Annie, born Schuylkill Haven,Pa.

Morgan, didn't you write that you don't spend much time researching ancestors outside North America?
Still, you might be aware of others that you could recommend ! Suggest any global EILER/EYLER/EULER researchers I can write to concerning my search for my line in the "mother" country?

THANKS again,
Bruce.

Morgan,
Hello. Hope this finds you well and happy.
I finally got my new pc, with plenty of space to spare. So, all systems for all and any files etc are a go..I just have to get it loaded with TMG and all info that I have to load.
I just got out of the hospital last evening, I was in for well over a week, I had pneumonia. I am not well yet, but needed to be home, so I am mending here now. While I was in the hospital, I got an email from a person wanting info on two people, one an Oiler, but possibly the name is ILer, and another one who's name is Oiler. I am enclosing the email in it's entirety.
If you can help this woman out any I would appreciate it. If not, I will write to her again and explain my need for time,
I know you always have many projects going on at one time, and don't know if you have the time to get any info together for this woman. I thought I would ask you.
It would be nice, if just maybe this could lead us to our link. I will pursue it further, when I am well.
I will keep in touch.. Be Well.
Warmest Regards Always, Brenda

Brenda Oiler,

34005 ?

Your address came from the WEB site. I am searching for Lydia A. Oiler-Oliver or Iler. She would be my GG Grandmother. She was b. 2 Dec. 1806 maybe in Ohio and died 27th of Nov 1873 and is buried in the Harper Cemetery near El Paso Woodford IL. She married Simpson Young Barnard on 29th Apr 1824 the marriage is recorded in Dayton Montgomery Ohio records as Lydia Oliver but another record from same place lists her as Lydia Oiler and Philip Oiler was present to sign her papers so she may have been underage. Philip Oiler is listed on the 1830 census as living in Butler Township, Montgomery, Ohio by Simpson Y. Barnard and Lydia Barnard. My Grandmother had a note in her possession saying Lydia's name was Iler which further confuses the issue.

Would you be chance ever have any information on Philip Oiler? I would appreciate any help or suggestion. I do have Simpson Young's photo but not Lydia's. Both came to Woodford County then called McLean County, IL and resided there from 1833 until their deaths.
Thanks! Helen Barnard Gildersleeve

Get well and stay well. Sorry to hear you have been ailing again and wish you a speedy recovery. Perhaps that new computer will encourage you (and you body) to get back on track. I keep about the same. Not spectacular but not too bad. And I do keep busy as you suggest. I am currently trying to get another newsletter put together and in the mail.

Regarding Helen (Barnard) Gildersleeve's inquiry. I haven't come up with anything precise or for that matter anything really close. I am mailing to you several things (screen prints and listings) from my files. A Philp Oiler [22809] does show up in my files in the Dayton area about the right time but I don't have any really worthwhile information about him. He is shown married to a Rebecca Gardner. There are lots of Iler's in IL but very few Oiler's.

Morgan:
Remember the picture that I sent you of the 4 generations of Iler's?
Well, I found out who they are. I received this information, after I made contact with Carol J. Iler, the widow of Homer Roth Iler, Jr.
She has the same picture hanging on her wall.
The picture must have taken between 22 Sept 1897 (birth of Homer Roth Iler Sr.) & 21 Dec 1897 (death of Jacob Iler Jr.)

Here are the names:
Baby = Homer Roth Iler Sr. = 18538 NY3111
Holding Baby = Lemuel Conrad Iler = 18536 NY311
Seated left = Jackson Iler Sr. = 18534 NY31
Seated right = Jacob Iler Jr. = 18532 NY3

Also, found out that, Jacob Iler Sr. = 18354 NY= Burial Location was not in Blanchard Cemetery
Actual location is = Alspach Cemetery, Row 8, Marion Township, Hancock County, Ohio = SE of Findlay, Ohio
Also buried there is = Jacob Iler III = 1850 NY32

Dear Morgan:

We missed you at our last Iler picnic in Canada last summer. Thank you so much for all the many hours you give to keeping up with our descendants. We have had a few changes in our family and so will try to list them.

4676

Our daughter, Mary Louise Barnthouse, who has been divorced since 1992, 51 married Robert C. Metke, birthdate Dec. 13/54 born in Deer River, Minnesota. They were married July 2, 1998 in Pensacola.

4674 52352

Jennifer Marie Truax married Scott Ryan Jones in Garner, NC on June 27/98. Scott's birthdate is July 30/72 born in Jamestown,NY. They now have a son, 53 Ryan Scott Jones born February 3, 2001 in Raleigh, NC. Jennifer is the daughter of our son, Wayne.

4678 52354

Melissa Ann Barnthouse had a daughter, Annalissa Nicole Jankowski born August 10, 1998 in Pensacola. She was married to William J. Jankowski on September 11, 1999 in Pensacola. Melissa is the daughter of our daughter, Mary Louise. 52355

The address label to me has Truax spelled incorrectly but I think the spelling is okay in our family tree.

If you need further information, let me know and I'll see if I can find it for you.

Best wishes,

Eldean Truax

Subject: Oylers

Hello! I am told you are THE best person to contact regarding sorting out Oylers, Ilers, Oilers,etc. If possible, could you check out an Oyler for me? I am looking for 'proof' that Elizabeth Oyler Wright was the daughter of Samuel and Sophia Rabson Oyler and my great-great grandmother. 46146
Samuel [b.1792 abt] was the son of Samuel [b. 1765]. He[Sam 1792] and Sophia came to Monroe Co. NY in 1839, along with Elizabeth Oyler Wright and her 147 husband Charles. They were married in London in 1836. We have a copy of their marriage license that is signed by a Samuel Oyler as a witness.
Eventually, they got to Tippecanoe Co., Indiana where they lived and died.
I have pictures of their graves and have visited the cemetery many times since I was a small child. Family history has Elizabeth being born in Smarden, Kent, England in 1817. That would put her right in between Samuel and Sophia's oldest son, John b. 1815 and son Samuel born in 1819. I just have found nothing other than local references to her being their daughter.
If you could offer any help, I would be very greatful! I can do look-ups in Tippecanoe Co. Ind. or in Marion Co.
Thanks!
Elaine

Morgan,

On the e-mail you sent the other day you mention Amela S Knece 49466 LU051641.

This is part of a family I have researched. I sent you at least part of the info long ago but maybe not the whole thing. She married into a family descendant from a man I believe adopted by Rev John Oiler of Wellston, who seems to be a son of an Oiler who lived in Greenbrier county of West Virginia.

49456 52377

Pamela S Knece was born at Circleville on 22 December 1958, of Jesse Knece 52356 and Betty Stump. She married in Circleville on 21 May 1979 to Larry T 49465
Oiler. (MR 35/70) Larry T Oiler was born 30 October 1858, son of Larry C 49455
Oiler and Shirley Hager, in Scioto county.

Larry Carl Oiler was born 2 October 1937 in Scioto county, son of James Oiler and Katherine Yeley. He was married (1) Shirley Ann Hage (?) and again to Shriley Ann Hage (?) in Vinton county on 6 December 1969. He divorced Shirley in Scioto county on 12 May 1969. I guess he married her twice. He worked in Hambden at Austin Powder Company. (Vinton county MR 15/42)

James Hill Oiler (26 November 1907 to 28 February 1940) was the son of Oney James Oiler and Iva Hill. He married Kathlen Yeley and died at Slocum Station in Scioto county. This should link into info I have already sent you.

Best wishes,

James Johnson

Subject: Re: ILER

Thanks Morgan for the two Emails of data....by searching the Fremont Co,IA site I found three McKissick's...one b.VA...the Mary b. KY is iffy as to whether she could be a sister to HANNA b. KY, wf of Cornelius McKissick or a sister to Cornelius, since her full name was MARY CHANEY McKISSICK age 31 m. KY....it has the m underlined, so not sure if that means married or male! There's also a McK listed b.PA, all listed are to close in age to be parents of the other. No Phoebe Angeline mentioned! No ILER anywhere to be seen except for one person looking for HENRY & another looking for Sarah Iler b.1839 MO d.1932 IA, m. John Clarke 16743
CHANEY b.1834 OH, d. NE. 16742

None of this important, anyway you prob already have it, but thought I'd let you know at least I found mentions of VA & PA which are close to MD where I need the connection.

Dear Morgan,

Just wanted to say "THANKS" for all your work on the Iler Newsletter. I really enjoy it.

While researching another line in Franklin County, Pennsylvania I came across the following Oyler information. (Franklin Co. borders Maryland and my ancestors there went back and forth between Washington Co., MD and Franklin Co., PA) Maybe this can help someone.

Lo family

Franklin County, PA Will Book F, page 424
Elias F. Oyler of Guildford township - 35651 mentions wife Susan Elizabeth - gets the house near Chambersburg sons - John H., Hiram A., Levi and Philip — 35653-4-5-6 witnesses - brother Levi Oyler and Brother in law - Joseph W. Crider will written 12 Oct 1860 entered probate 19 Oct 1860

1870 Guilford township - Franklin Co., PA - page 217
21446 Jacob Oyler 41 b. PA
21447 Rebecca 39, PA
9 John 11, PA
21521 Jacob 9, PA
87 Charles 6, PA
99 Harry 4, PA

Linda.

p.s enclosed a little something to help with Newsletter costs.

Subject: Re: Obit - Robert G Eiler

Morgan,

Thank you for your email, and the tip about that memorial website.

Yes, this Robert G. Eiler fits into my EILER line of Schuylkill Co., along the Johannes Eiler side... Also, I recently saw Robert Eiler's grandfather (Frank Eiler) and family on the 1880 census:

1880 Schuylkill Haven , Schuylkill County, Pa.

(Turnpike St.) 266 - 281 Eiler, Franklin 38, engineer, Pa.,Pa.,Pa. 1842 — 49907
Lee 36, wife Pa.,Pa.,Pa, 1844 — 49908
Elwood 19 son, Barber 1861 — 49913
Harry 17 son 1863 — 49909 ← EY1371 (EBA01)
Clayton 12 son 1868 — 52561
Franklin 10 son 1870 — 52561
Robert 6 son 1884 — 49912
Emma May 3 daughter 1887 49914

And I believe the following households will tie into the Adam Eiler side!

1880 census, Frackville, Schuylkill County, Pa.

Lehigh Avenue) 116 - 122 Eiler, Silvester (age) 20 laborer,Pa,Pa,Pa 1860
Annie wife, 22 (married within the last census year) 1858

1880 census, Frackville, Schuy. co., PA.

(Railroad Avenue) 260 - 287 Eiler, John 46, Fireman , Pa,Pa,Pa 1834
Ann 34, wife 1846
Henry W. 16, son 1864
Sarah J. 9 1861
George 6 1864
John 4 1866
Charles E. 11/12 (born July 1879 1869

1880 census, Wayne Township 41 -42 Eiler, Jacob 74, farmer, Pa,Pa,Pa 1806 — 24767
Rudy, Elizabeth 73, servant 1807

Let me sort this out, and I can mail you a current printout of my line!

I appreciate you thinking about me.
Bruce.

Subject: MORE OILER/OYLER OBITS

Morgan,

Hi, Hope you are well. I found some more obits that I thought you could use. The Oiler ones I am almost sure belong in the OS2 line, of course this is at first glance, I will check deeper. Following is the site online where I found them.

The Cleveland (Ohio) Necrology File, a collection of paid death notices from Cleveland newspapers and cemetery records, has been converted to digital format and mounted on Cleveland Public Library's website (http://www.cpl.org).

As you may have guess or deduced, lol, is I am getting myself back into genealogy and should (if all goes well) be able to add much, much more information on not only my OS2 line but of other lines as well..Still looking for that link that shows we are relates, I KNOW we are...

Take Care. Be Well. Write when you can.

Always, Brenda

WILLIAM A. EILER, M.D.

Of Mt. Lebanon, on Wednesday, April 25, 2001; beloved husband of Ruth A. Eiler; father of W. Scott Eiler & wife Barbara of St. Louis, MO, Cindy E. Bowman & husband David of Freehold, NJ, Jeffrey A. Eiler & wife Lori of Cleveland, OH; loving grandfather of Brian & Michelle Eiler, Carolynn Eiler and Rebecca Bowman. Dr. Eiler received his undergraduate and medical degrees from the university of Pittsburgh. He served his internship and residency at Magee Hospital. He was Board Certified in Internal Medicine and established a private practice Gateway Medical Inc. located in 2 Gateway Center. He provided care to many of the larger companies in the area including PPG and Westinghouse. Dr. Eiler was an avid outdoorsmen and nature photographer and will be remembered for his love of his dogs and beautiful day lilies, three of which were registered with the Hemerocallis Society. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Medical Society for 50 years, Library Sportsmens Association, the Ruffed Grouse Society, Mt. Lebanon United Presbyterian Church, and on the Emeritus Staff of Mercy Hospital. Burial will be private. A memorial service will be held in the Mt. Lebanon United Presbyterian Church, Mt. Lebanon, on May 12 at 11am. In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions be sent to the National Parkinson's Foundation, 1501 Northwest 9th Ave., Miami, FL, 33136 or to a charity of one's choice. Arrangements by LAUGHLIN MEMORIAL CHAPEL INC., Mt. Lebanon.

Subject: Re: Eyler

Andrea,

I spent yesterday at the Family History Library to see if I could confirm some of the dates you had in your e-mail. I restudied the microfilmed church records of Maar, Hessen, Germany to be sure I had not previously misinterpreted them.

You quoted the following from another researcher:

"Micheal Euler was mayor in Maar in 1677. He died Oct. 22, 1694. Married twice. The second marriage was to Anna Helfenbein on Apr 4, 1675 and had five children. Their first son Konrad Euler was born Jul 4, 1675 and died in Maar. In the family link I have followed there is no information on Michael Euler's birth date nor the maiden name of his first wife or if there were any children from the first marriage. ... it is necessary to investigate Michael Euler first marriage." Here is what I found in the microfilmed records:

There were no deaths recorded in Maar in October 1694. There was an entry on 26 May 1694 stating Michel EULER was buried that day. I did not find a Michel married 4 April 1675. I did find a Michel married 4 April 1695 to Anna HELFFENBEIN. I believe there are two different Michel's. I am enclosing two family group sheets showing children born after the 1694 death of one of the Michel's. Note that there was a son (Johann Jost) and a daughter (Maria Elisabetha) born before the Johann Conradt (2nd son) born 16 Jul 1675. There was no Conrad born on 4 Jul 1675.

You mentioned excerpts from Ned E. OYLER. Another researcher from Boise (Dick OYLER) sent me a copy of Ned's report "Known Facts on Conrad and Margret Oyler," in which Ned says a parish entry shows Michel EULER's son Conrad born 20 Apr 1697. The Maar film shows this, but this had to another Michel than the one who died in 1694. He says Michael EULER and Anna HELFENBEIN were married on 4 April 1695 (correct). He says Michael was born 5 May 1670. (Maar entries were missing from 1661 to 1673). He says Michael died 24 Dec 1756. This is incorrect. The entry for this date shows that it was the widow of Michel EULER (Anna HELFFENBEIN) who died that day. She was 86 yr 7 mon 12 days old. I did not find Michel's death date. Ned also reports the Konrad (20 April 1697) married Christine BECKER, and died in 1751. I did not find his death in 1751. Note there was another son born 13 Oct 1700 (Johann Conradt), so it is most likely the first Konrad died as an infant. The report shows there was a brother, Valentine, born 28 Jan 1740 (35 years after a sister was born in 1705). This was impossible. The entry for 28 Jan 1740 shows that a child named Johann Veltin was born on that day and baptized on the 29 Jan 1740. He was the illegitimate son of Anna Maria EULLER, who named Conradt STOEHLER (? name not clear) as the father. Johann Veltin, a son of Michel EULLER was the witness.

Ned believes: "Conrad OYLER that is our relative is NOT the one coming from the source previously accepted as fact." I agree, but I still have not identified his birth place or date. I have found the birth place and date for his wife, and have extended her line further. If you should ever find any clue as to where our Conrad may have been born, please let me know, and I will try to search those records. Otherwise, it is like looking for a needle in a haystack when looking at the thousands of microfilms of German records that are available.

Morgan,
Hello there, How are you? Sure hope all is fine your way..I am fine and family is well also, Thank God..

I have been contacted by a couple new persons of the Oiler family. The one I know is the OS2 line, but, the other one, I cannot find any information on any of the names that he sent to me. His email to me is in it's entirety at the bottom of this writing. I checked my FamilyTreeMaker Files and the Master Genealogist and cannot find anything, so I thought I'd send it to you..I imagine your information in TMG is more updated than what mine is..I thought I'd pass it along to you to see if you could help..

I have another question for you. When you entered your information onto CD's, did you do it in the form of reports? My new computer is also a writer, so I can burn CD's, and would like to store some of my information that way..Also, if you have any updates that you'd like to send my way, I will willingly accept them..I should have some updates for you soon. A few families I am working on.. I am attempting to use TMG more and get away from the FamilytreeMaker software, but Oh, what a job that's going to be...But, I do like a challenge, so be it..lol..

I am going to go for now..Write when you can..Take Care. Be Well.
Always, Brenda

Surname: OILER, OYLER, TAP, REVELL, DAVIS, MAHATLY

These records were found in the "loose files" of DeKalb County Alabama Probate Court Marriage Papers...

8758
OILER, Smith to MAHATLY, Mary Jane...marriage bond 1/29/1883, was never executed.

8752
OYLER, Daniel to TAP, Melvina?, listed in the index but original papers were not found, married 8/29/1858 (could have been bond or license only, assumed to be marriage).

8756 8757
OYLER, Frederick to REVELL, Sarah (Sary) Jane, married 9/7/1871 (marriage index had error showing mrg on 9/14/1871; actual marriage was executed on 9/7/1871 as read from original papers.)

8838 8839
OYLER, George W. to DAVIS, Sarah C., married on 3/12/1871.

*This is by no means all the Oyler/Oiler marriages, but just those found in the loose files between 1836-1886. We have found some items which have been misfiled, a number that are now too damaged to read, and fear some have worked off with "well-meaning" researchers who know they are the "only" one who would be interested, or lost through other means of neglect. Thankfully, most of those are listed in the index books so we have some record that they took place. Can't find your marriages in DeKalb? Try Dade County, Georgia and Jackson County, Alabama or other surrounding counties as a number of people from DeKalb were married there.

I am a volunteer who is helping to prepare the "loose files" for microfilming and post these marriages due to my personal interest as I have a Brown relative who md an Oyler. If you have a similiar connection, please contact me for further discussion. Thanks.

HI MORGAN FROM OMAHA!

SINCE I SENT MY OUTLINE OF PHILLIP EDWARD OYLER, YOU NOW HAVE HIS CHILDREN. I KNEW ALL EXCEPT GROVER SO THIS IS ACCURATE INFORMATION :) PHILLIP EDWARD WAS BORN "OILER" AND BECAUSE THERE WERE MIXUPS ON HIS MAIL WITH THE MAIL OF RELATIVES, HE CHANGED THE SPELLING. SOURCE FOR THAT INFORMATION IS MY AUNT ROBERTA, DAUGHTER OF GRACE.

I'M SENDING MY WHOLE OUTLINE. THE WORK IS NOT MINE. IT WAS DONE BY GROVER'S GRANDDAUGHTER, DENISE. I HAVE LOST HER - I HAVE NO IDEA WHERE SHE IS NOW :(

DO THESE FOLKS TIE INTO YOUR LINE??

Kay

PS. Fascinating about your dad :)

Subject: Elizabeth Oyler Wright

Hello Morgan!
Hope you are well and enjoying a great spring!
I had such a nice thing happen, that I had to tell you! I have been looking for 'proof' tht my GGma Elizabeth Oyler Wright { 46146, OSK13} was the daughter of Samuel and Sophia Rabson Oyler. I could not find documentation of her birth. Well, guess what! She just showed up on the LDS site last week, along with her husband, Charles Wright. I emailed my contact in England, who is a distant cousin on my Mother's side of the family. He contacted the library at Ashford, Kent, England. They had NO births recorded for the week of her birth in the little village of Smarden, but who ever looked that up scanned ahead a few weeks and found her christening date of May 25, 1817...so my Great-great-grandmother Elizabeth is found and duly documented!! Isn't that great???
I had all the papers out today that you sent. I can find some 'facts' that I know are wrong, and I am trying to corrrect them and decide how to report them to you. We are never done, are we!!
Also, I tried to contact the HEIRS website, but it is never accessible. I am trying http://www.rootsweb.com/~onheirs/index.htm that you referenced in the October 2000 newsletter.

If that is the wrong address please let me know!
Thanks again for all your good work!
Your cousin,
Elaine in Indy
